recount Gino's early years in a loving household that was always ready to welcome foster children. Gino's father Joe had suffered the lonely traumas of the residential school system and the experience had instilled a commitment in the family to those who were less fortunate. The book also details Gino's eventual struggles with alcohol abuse and how he responded by taking on the role of empathetic mentor to young Indigenous people travelling from community to community to hear their stories and offer hope. He never wavered in this role even as he confronted serious illnesses including chronic traumatic encephalopathy (CTE) and the rare blood disorder that he survived for years longer than expected but that eventually led to his death at age fifty-two. Gino is a moving tribute to a beloved hockey legend.

Sports Business Management George Foster, Norm O'Reilly, Antonio Dávila, 2026-02-25. This new edition of a popular and accessible textbook equips students with a comprehensive understanding of the sport industry. With a focus on management, strategy, marketing, and finance, the decision-making approach of the book emphasizes key concepts while translating them into practice. Content specific to each of the vital stakeholders in the sport business is included. Foster, O'Reilly, and Dávila present a set of modular chapters supported with international examples. The book includes content about sport organizations such as the Olympic Games, FIFA World Cup, the European Premier Leagues, and Major North American Professional Sport Leagues. This is an ideal textbook for upper-level undergraduate and postgraduate students of sports business and management.
