My belief about myself as a learner when I entered the class was a positive one. I attended a college prep school for high school and went to Oregon State University last year. I had plenty of practice with different learning techniques and found what works well for me. I believe I'm more of a visual learner than an auditory learner. It is easier to see a powerpoint and retain the knowledge than listen to a lecture and have the same retention. Entering the class I thought I liked working in groups more than working individually on projects, but that has since changed. I think it is more beneficial to me to work alone because I can get more done. When I entered the class I believed that reading the material closer to the due date was a better idea because I may not remember what I had read if I didn't.

What I have discovered about myself, as a learner over the term is vast. I learned that I can read the material way in advance and just briefly skim over the text and remember just about everything, where as I thought reading closer was more beneficial. I also learned that working in groups really isn't my specialty. I prefer working by myself because I'm able to get a lot more done and not have to worry about other people forgetting their part of the project. I don't like having to worry about other people not following through. I also learned that looking at the daily record in advanced helped me

Self Reflective Journal Essay:

Enjoying the Tune of Phrase: An Mental Symphony within Self Reflective Journal Essay

In some sort of consumed by displays and the ceaseless chatter of instantaneous transmission, the melodic elegance and emotional symphony created by the written word often fade in to the background, eclipsed by the persistent sound and disturbances that permeate our lives. However, set within the pages of Self Reflective Journal Essay a charming fictional treasure overflowing with raw emotions, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by an elegant musician of language, this captivating masterpiece conducts visitors on a psychological trip, skillfully unraveling the hidden songs and profound affect resonating within each carefully crafted phrase. Within the depths with this moving review, we shall investigate the book is central harmonies, analyze its enthralling publishing fashion, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
