The Almond Nedjma:

The Almond Nedjma, 2005 An autobiographical novel chronicles the sexual awakening of a Muslim woman as it follows the protagonist from a stifling Algerian household in the country to Tangiers where she explores personal identity and sexuality free of the constraints of her upbringing

STRUKTURAL 2020 Nina Setyaningsih, Sri Mulatsih, Neni Kurniawati, 2021-09-10 We proudly present the proceedings of 2nd International Seminar on Translation Studies Applied Linguistics Literature and Cultural Studies 2020 STRUKTURAL 2020 It focuses on how disruptive era influences participants field of researches especially in Humanities and Social Studies As we know the world today is changing and the world we are facing now is the one where everything is connected Not only are our PCs our tablets our hand phones and other devices connected but everything that happens in societies is also now connected Today even a robbery incident in a small village has a possibility to make a city in another part of the world collapse This butterfly effect of social change may also give a big impact in our understanding and our field of study of social sciences and humanities More than 70 manuscripts were presented at this conference with around 41 of them selected to be published in proceedings We hope by this conference discussions on how research on humanities and social studies is possible in a disruptive era will give a perspective for the social and humanities studies development

Jasmine and Stars Fatemeh Keshavarz, 2007-03-05 In a direct frank and intimate exploration of Iranian literature and society scholar teacher and poet Fatemeh Keshavarz challenges popular perceptions of Iran as a society bereft of vitality and joy Her fresh perspective on present day Iran provides a rare insight into this rich culture alive with artistic expression but virtually unknown to most Americans Keshavarz introduces readers to two modern Iranian women writers whose strong and articulate voices belie the stereotypical perception of Iranian women as voiceless victims in a country of villains She follows with a lively critique of the recent best seller Reading Lolita in Tehran A Memoir in Books which epitomizes what Keshavarz calls the New Orientalist narrative a view marred by stereotype and prejudice more often tied to current geopolitical conflicts than to an understanding of Iran Blending in firsthand glimpses of her own life from childhood memories in 1960s Shiraz to her present life as a professor in America Keshavarz paints a portrait of Iran depicting both cultural depth and intellectual complexity With a scholar's expertise and a poet's hand she helps amplify the powerful voices of contemporary Iranians and leads readers toward a deeper understanding of the country's past and present

Feminist Traditions in Andalus-Moroccan Oral Narratives H. Lebbady, 2009-09-28 In this volume Lebbady has compiled and translated seven Andalusian women's tales from the north of Morocco and analyzes them from a postcolonial theoretical perspective finding in the women far more wit and agency than western stereotypes would suggest

Women and Resistance in the Maghreb Nabil Boudraa, Joseph Ohmann Krause, 2021-07-29 This book studies women's resistance in the three countries of the Maghreb concentrating on two questions First what has been the role of women artists since the 1960s in unlocking traditions and emancipating women on their own terms Second why have

Maghrebi women rarely been given the right to be heard since Algeria Morocco and Tunisia gained national independence Honouring the artistic voices of women that have been largely eclipsed from both popular culture and political discourse in the Maghreb the work specifically examines resistance by women since 1960s in the Maghreb through cinema politics and the arts In an ancillary way the volume addresses a wide range of questions that are specific to Maghrebi women related to upbringing sexuality marriage education representation exclusion and historical memory These issues in their broadest dimensions opened the gates to responses in different fields in both the humanities and the social sciences The research presents scholarship by not only leading scholars in Francophone studies cultural history and specialists in women studies but also some of the most important film critics and practicing feminist advocates The variety of periods and disciplines in this collection allow for a coherent and general understanding of Maghrebi societies since decolonization The volume is a key resource to students and scholars interested in women s studies the Maghreb and Middle East studies

Myth of the Silent Woman Suellen Diaconoff,2009-11-07 Suellen Diaconoff situates French language texts from Moroccan women writers in a discourse of social justice and reform arguing that they contribute to the emerging national debate on democracy and help to create new public spaces of discourse and participation

L'Amante (The Almond) Nedjma,2005 My ambition is to give back to the women of my blood the power of speech confiscated by their men Badra is a young Berber girl from aNorth African village who is married off to an old man and brutally raped on her wedding night She thinks sexual pleasure exists only for men until she escapes from her cruel husband to the city Then she meets a handsome doctor who introduces her to a new world of sexual passion L Amante written under a pseudonym by a North African woman living in France reads like an erotic manifesto for modern women who want to break free from the repressive bonds of cultural tradition to unashamedly demand their right to pleasure

Global Justice and Desire Nikita Dhawan,Antke Engel,Christoph H.E. Holzhey,Volker

Woltersdorff,2015-05-15 Employing feminist queer and postcolonial perspectives Global Justice and Desire addresses economy as a key ingredient in the dynamic interplay between modes of subjectivity signification and governance Bringing together a range of international contributors the book proposes that both analyzing justice through the lens of desire and considering desire through the lens of justice are vital for exploring economic processes A variety of approaches for capturing the complex and dynamic interplay of justice and desire in socioeconomic processes are taken up But acknowledging a complexity of forces and relations of power domination and violence sometimes cohering and sometimes contradictory it is the relationship between hierarchical gender arrangements relations of exploitation and their colonial histories that is stressed Therefore queer feminist and postcolonial perspectives intersect as Global Justice and Desire explores their capacity to contribute to more just and more desirable economies New York ,2005 Translation Review ,2006 Bust ,2005 Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction 2007 ,2008-02 The New York Times Index ,2005 Index Islamicus ,2007 Cosmopolitan Desire Stephen William Foster,2006-09-12 An in depth look at how globalization affects Western and Moslem cultures in Morocco In the Alterations Series New Books on Women and Feminism ,2005 New Encyclopedia of Africa John Middleton,2008 Contains a collection of alphabetically arranged entries from Ibadan to Mzilikazi on the history geography culture religion and ideologies wars and economy of the African nations and includes essays and photographs Gatra ,2005 Book Review Index ,2006 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation
