No Hard Feelings Genevieve Novak,2022-04-01 Hungover underpaid and overwhelmed this isn't where Penny expected to be as she reached her late twenties. A sharp, smart and witty look at adulthood. Fleabag meets Sorrow and Bliss with a splash of Dolly Alderton. No Hard Feelings is clever, funny and surprisingly sweet and Penny captured my heart. Toni Jordan: I exist on validation from emotionally unavailable men, biscuits and cheap wine and it's easier to get off with Max than a Tiny Teddy. Penny can't help but compare herself to her friends. Annie is about to become a senior associate at her law firm. Bec has just got engaged. Leo is dating everyone this side of the Yarra and Penny is just waiting. Waiting for Max, her on-again-off-again boyfriend, to allow her to spend the night waiting for the promotion she was promised. Waiting for her Valium to kick in. Waiting for her real life to start. Out of excuses and sick of falling behind, Penny is determined to turn things around. She's going to make it work with Max, impress her tyrannical boss, quit seeing her useless therapist, remember to water her plants and stop having panic attacks in the work toilets. But soon she's back to doomscrolling on Instagram, necking bottles of Aldi's finest sauvignon blanc and criticising herself with renewed vigour and loathing. As her goals seem further away than ever, she has to wonder when bad habits feel so good, how do you trust what's right for you. Praise for No Hard Feelings: Genevieve Novak will inevitably be compared to other authors, but the truth is she is herself and herself alone, and that's a good thing. Funny, biting, vulnerable and unflinching, Novak's novel is like an ocean dip, a bit salty, very refreshing. Lauren Sams: Scaldingly funny and biting, real. No Hard Feelings deserves a warning label: danger may induce binge reading. With her sly wit, Genevieve Novak's debut demonstrates a brilliant eye for observing the little things in life, which together can be the biggest things of all. Tori Haschka: author of Grace Under Pressure. No Hard Feelings is a gratifying, warm and funny debut. Books Publishing: Novak has perfectly captured the self-doubt and total horror of having to be happy and functional in your twenties. It would have you crying into your chipped manicure if it wasn't so darn funny. Kimberley Allsopp: author of Love and Other Puzzles. Democracy in the Disinformation Age Regina Luttrell, Lu Xiao, Jon Glass, 2021-05-23. In this book, established researchers draw on a range of theoretical and empirical perspectives to examine social media's impact on American politics. Chapters critically examine activism in the digital age, fake news, online influence, messaging tactics, news transparency and authentication, consumers' digital habits and ultimately the societal impacts that continue to be created by combining social media and politics. Through this book, readers will better understand and approach with questions such as: How exactly and why did social media become a powerful factor in politics? What responsibilities do social networks have in the proliferation of factually wrong and hate-filled messages? Or should individuals be held accountable? What are the state-of-the-art computational techniques for measuring and determining social media's impact on society? What role does online activism play in today's political arena? What does the potent combination of social media and politics truly mean for the future of democracy? The insights and debates found herein provide a stronger understanding of the core issues and steer us toward improved curriculum and research aimed at a better democracy. Democracy in the Disinformation Age: Influence and Activism in American Politics will appeal to both undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as academics with an interest in areas including political science media studies mass communication PR and journalism
