Influencer Advertising versus Traditional Advertising,2021-07-21 Master's Thesis from the year 2020 in the subject Communications Public Relations Advertising Marketing Social Media grade 1-0 Klagenfurt University language English abstract In the field of marketing influencer promotions evolved to an established strategy to spread awareness about brands and to target potential customers Especially the beauty industry utilizes the strategic communication approaches through the embeddedness of products into the creative content of influencers in order to persuade consumers The purpose of this research paper is to examine the influencing power of those digital opinion leaders while comparing this potential with traditional print advertisements in magazines In this process particular focus has been laid on the perceived credibility of both marketing techniques applied on the luxury cosmetic market in Austria Through a quantitative survey with paper and pencil questionnaires data on attitudes and perceptions of 120 respondents could be gathered in Klagenfurt Results of the study reveal that influencer advertisements are not automatically more influencing than traditional print advertisements However a positive pre-attitude towards beloved influencers affect people to develop a more positive attitude towards brands and products that were advertised by social media opinion leaders These findings suggest that luxury cosmetic brands should create a marketing mix that implements a complementary storytelling strategy between influencer promotions and print advertisements. Thereby, companies can target influencer followers as well as consumers of older generations to achieve a communication concept which attracts potential customers in a diversified way. Thank You for Firing Me! Kitty Martini, Candice Reed, 2010. Unfortunately, unemployment is on the rise, leaving many people anxious about how to recreate themselves and renew their careers after being fired. This fresh, funny, and smart guide will be their life saver, providing them with the information they need to thrive even in this tight economic environment. It will help jobseekers and prospective entrepreneurs figure out what they really want to do next, understand the changing job market, and find work in growth areas such as green technology. There's also advice on retraining, freelancing, and independent contracting, and Internet marketing options, as well as a chapter devoted specifically to women. Personal interviews with workers who changed their lives after getting laid off and who are now doing what they love offer additional inspiration. Web 2.0 & Libraries, Part 2 Michael T. Stephens, 2007. EventDV, 2008. Information Literacy Instruction Esther S. Grassian, Joan R. Kaplowitz, 2009. The second edition of this guide for librarians who need to implement informational literacy programs for diverse learners has been revised to include new practices and technologies in the 21st century. Grassian served as a library administrator at the UCLA College Library and she has teamed with fellow UCLA librarian Kaplowitz to deliver a plan that focuses on goal setting, media selection, design, copyright, and assessment of these programs. A CD-ROM is included that contains sample mission statements, tables that evaluate assessment tools, practice handouts, and links to interactive Web pages. Annotation 2010. Book News, Inc.
