Sorokina, Rendt Gorter, Michael Charles Tobias, Jane Gray Morrison, Ilya V. Ponomarev, Valentina M. Bondarenko, Vasily N. Vasilenko, Anton L. Grinin, 2015-11-16 The present volume is the fourth issue of the Yearbook series entitled Evolution The title of the present volume is From Big Bang to Nanorobots In this way we demonstrate that all phases of evolution and Big History are covered in the articles of the present Yearbook Several articles also present the forecasts about future development The main objective of our Yearbook as well as of the previous issues is the creation of a unified interdisciplinary field of research in which the scientists specializing in different disciplines could work within the framework of unified or similar paradigms using the common terminology and searching for common rules tendencies and regularities At the same time for the formation of such an integrated field one should use all available opportunities theories laws and methods In the present volume a number of such approaches are used The volume consists of four sections Universal Evolutionary Principles Biosocial Evolution Ecological Aspects and Consciousness Projects for the Future In Memoriam This Yearbook will be useful both for those who study interdisciplinary macroproblems and for specialists working in focused directions as well as for those who are interested in evolutionary issues of Cosmology Biology History Anthropology Economics and other areas of study More than that this edition will challenge and excite your vision of your own life and the new discoveries going on around us

AP* World History David Tamm, 2015-04-20 Kaplan's 5 Steps Crash Course and the others are great resources for reviewing at the end but Tamm's Textbook Tools accompanies students all year long This AP World History companion is filled with vocab and assignments that follow the Bentley text throughout the year chapter by chapter It can be used for regular weekly assignments or review It can be used on short notice if there is a sub or be done as homework All you need is the textbook Teachers can copy at will or the book can be used as a student consumable As publishers started putting the majority of their content online it opened a niche for traditional paper assignments a void filled by this series The textbook itself can be written in ink or electrons but students still need to write and keep notes for themselves and portfolios still matter These activities challenge students to apply the concepts and give examples diagramming each chapter as it comes
