

AN ANALYSIS OF ANTONIO MAVIERA'S PASILYO 8

Jayvel B. De Guzman

The story begins at a place called Pasilyo 8. It is a place described to be related in an area of slums; a dwelling of deprived and informal settlers. The descriptions written by the author perfectly pictures a place where basic human necessities such as food, shelter, water, medicines, and more are not met considerably. The setting represents the harsh counterpart of life which could be taken as a symbolism for the daily challenges underprivileged families face just to survive and to sustain their life.

Narrated from a third person standpoint, the story uses flashbacks and recollections which serves as tiny bits of pieces that sums up a big puzzle piece. The flashbacks provided from the perspective of protagonist Bianong links with the things that are happening in the present. Even though the actions are simple described for the readers, the readers still need to read between the lines to fully grasp what the author intends. The story revolves around a man named Bianong, and his journey as a father living in Pasilyo 8. The other characters are Estella, Bianong's wife, the twins Tenteng and Minian, the baby named Biik, and the acquaintance Pareng Isko. The plot mainly circles around their family, and their experience living with scarcity in terms of food and medicine. The story mentioned that Bianong was lazy, comparing him to a "lazy carabao." While Estela was the one obliged to work hard, yet the phrase "was not wearing anything under her cotton shift" implies that her job involves her physique sexually.

The man versus society conflict, as well as the indirect man versus self can be seen in the short story as the protagonist embarks on his quest of survival, doubt, and internal misery. Bianong's shortcomings and mishaps when it comes to properly sustaining his sons and daughters, with the two being ailing twins and the other one being a mere infant, serves as a societal conflict. The need for drug prescriptions for treatment, milk for the baby, and the everyday needs of him and his wife are battling the protagonist must face in a day-to-day basis. Another conflict he has was regarding the suspicious affair between his friend Isko and his wife. The sentence "his gaze transfixed upon her swaying buttocks" implies a hidden agenda. Though it was not directly portrayed, the conflict between Bianong and himself is also ongoing all throughout the story. As the story progresses, and as certain
