David Malouf An Imaginary Life:

An Imaginary Life David Malouf, 1978 In the first century A D Publius Ovidius Naso the most urbane and irreverent poet of imperial Rome was banished to a remote village on the edge of the Black Sea From these sparse facts Malouf has fashioned an audacious and supremely moving novel Marooned on the edge of the known world exiled from his native tongue Ovid depends on the kindness of barbarians who impale their dead and converse with the spirit world Then he becomes the guardian of a still more savage creature a feral child who has grown up among deer What ensues is a luminous encounter between civilization and nature as enacted by a poet who once cataloged the treacheries of love and a boy who slowly learns how to give it A work of unusual intelligence and imagination full of surprising images and insights One of those rare books you end up underlining and copying out into notebooks and reading out loud to friends The New York Times Book Review Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved Ovid's Poetics of Illusion Philip R. Hardie, 2002-02-07 Ovid's poetry is haunted obsessively by a sense both of the living fullness of the texts and of the emptiness of these insubstantial pageants This major study touches on the whole of Ovid's output from the Amores to the exile poetry and is an overarching treatment of illusionism and the textual conjuring of presence in the corpus Modern critical and theoretical approaches accompanied by close readings of individual passages examine the topic from the points of view of poetics and rhetoric aesthetics the psychology of desire philosophy religion and politics There are also case studies of the reception of Ovid's poetics of illusion in Renaissance and modern literature and art The book will interest students and scholars of Latin and later European literatures All foreign languages are accompanied by translations Imagined Lives Philip Neilsen, 1996 This revised edition gives a detailed analysis of David Malouf's novels and discusses some of his poems as they relate to his fiction Includes a chronology references a bibliography and an index One in the series Studies in Australian Literature The author is associate professor in the School of Media and Journalism at QUT His other works include The Art of Lying and Life Movies The Outback Within Mark Byrne, 2016-09-23 What is it about the Australian outback For nearly two centuries narratives of outback journeys have been suffused with the aura of death Why It is not just that the desert is big dry hot and apparently empty The outback is Australia's mythological crucible and journeys there have become rites of passage It is where settler Australians go to die and perhaps be reborn This book explores the landscape of this evolving national mythology It argues that a more conscious engagement with the process of symbolic death and rebirth is needed for Australians to enter into a deeper understanding of themselves and their relationship to the land and its Indigenous people Representations and Images of Frontiers and Borders Katarzyna Nowak-McNeice, Alejandra María Aventín Fontana, 2021-11-22 This collection gathers a variety of scholars representing various methodological perspectives and applying diverse critical lenses to analyze the idea of borders borderlands frontiers and liminal space as they are represented in literature and philosophy The idea of the border and frontier is perhaps more important than ever under the siege of COVID 19 with shattered illusions of a post racial world when a global effort is required as a response to a crisis that does not respect national or regional borders we need to reconsider what frontiers and borders mean to us and how to best understand them so that they do not divide but point to areas of common knowledge collective experiences and shared humanity Drawing upon examples from different continents Africa the Americas Asia and Europe and from diverse specific places such as the Mexico US border or the contested Palestinian frontiers and using a variety of critical perspectives evoking Gloria Anzaldua Jorge Luis Borges and Edward Said for instance this volume explores the idea of frontiers and borders in order to comment on their representations in literature philosophy music and cinema and on the human condition in general
