What's Up With Women and Money? Alison Kosik, 2015-03-04 Former CNN CNN International Anchor and Business Correspondent Alison Kosik recognized around the globe as the face of Wall Street for the network found herself trapped in a failing marriage The savvy mother of two was terrified to leave her husband Why She didn't have the confidence to take on big financial decisions on her own Despite spending her working hours explaining financial and business concepts she had allowed her husband to take charge of all their big money decisions from buying a house and how to finance it to their investments and retirement savings and had no clue how to do any of it on her own It sounds crazy doesn't it But Alison is far from atypical It turns out plenty of educated and high achieving women married or single avoid getting involved with managing their financial lives In What's Up With Women and Money Alison gives a step by step action plan on a variety of money topics Alison also interviews dozens of women who share their cautionary tales of why avoiding money decisions can lead to bad outcomes Alison also talks one on one with inspirational women like Sheryl Sandberg Rebecca Minkoff Jessica Alba Barbara Corcoran and Deepica Mutyala women who inspire other women and help them gain confidence to take control of their financial lives Alison simplifies complicated financial topics of investing car buying and paying down debt breaking them down into easy to follow steps with practical tidbits that make each page accessible digestible and fun By the end of What's Up With Women and Money women will not only feel empowered and confident about their finances but they will also feel ready to take action after being motivated without judgment

The Context Marketing Revolution Mathew Sweezey, 2020-03-24 In a world of limitless media noise how can businesses break through to customers Context We are in the midst of a massive media revolution For the first time in history ordinary people around the world have the ability to create distribute and consume content instantly from anywhere using connected devices The massive increase in media noise created by these consumers and devices creates an entirely new situation that makes conventional marketing models obsolete And yet countless companies and marketing organizations continue to rely on traditional models assuming that their campaigns will sway customers They couldn't be more wrong In this provocative and practical book Salesforce marketing maven Mathew Sweezey boldly outlines this new infinite media environment and poses a profound question In a transformed world where customers shape their own experience what is the key to breaking through and motivating them to buy It is context the close linkage between an individual's immediate desires and the experiences a brand creates to fulfill them Drawing on new research and new insights into current consumer psychology Sweezey defines the five key elements of context Customer experiences must be Available Helping people achieve the value they seek in the moment Permissioned Giving people what they've asked for on their terms Personal Going beyond how personal it is to how personally you can deliver it Authentic Combining voice empathy and brand congruence simultaneously Purposeful Creating a deeper connection to the brand beyond the product Sweezey uses vivid examples to highlight a new marketing model used by high performing brands big and small The final part of the book shifts to execution providing a new rule book for context based marketing The Context Marketing Revolution will change forever how you think about the purpose and practice of marketing
