

TIPS FOR IMPROVING YOUR ACT READING SCORE

via blog.prepscholar.com

1) SWITCH YOUR READING STRATEGY

The best way to read a passage: skimming it on the first read-through.

2) ELIMINATE WRONG ANSWERS

Only one answer is 100% correct, which means the other three are 100% wrong.

3) FIND YOUR WEAKNESS

Find your greatest areas of improvement and work on those.

4) USE ACT RESOURCES

Train on badly written tests, and you'll develop poor habits and unhelpful strategies.

5) DON'T FOCUS ON VOCAB

Vocabulary doesn't play more than a minor role in your score.

6) SKIP THE HARD QUESTIONS

It gives you more time on the questions you have a good chance of getting right.

7) LEARN FROM YOUR MISTAKES

If you don't understand why you missed a question, you'll make that mistake over and over again.

8) IF YOU DON'T KNOW, GUESS

The ACT has no guessing penalty. You have no reason not to fill every blank on your answer sheet.

Adolescents Rewrite their Worlds Vivian Yenika-Agbaw, Teresa Sychterz, 2015-02-08 Adolescents Rewrite their Worlds Using Literature to Illustrate Writing Forms offers alternative ways teachers can engage young adolescents with the writing process using literature The contributors discuss the values of writing in twenty-first century classrooms and global societies remarking that writing is first a personal exploration that is informed by cultural practices Therefore culture is quite central in how we approach, explore, and express through any medium The chapters consider ways to motivate students to become critically conscious and active writers who are aware of their surrounding world and the competing multiple discourses in which they are positioned This requires intimate knowledge of audience, purpose, and genre, and/or writing forms We provide practical advice for teachers who wish to guide their students toward these goals Additional features of this book include Authors' Contributors' professional experiences of teaching writing using literature Practical pedagogical practices that may transform the way teachers teach writing and use literature Interviews with authors that give insight into their writing process Writing practices for twenty-first century adolescents using new literacies

Gestures of Concern Chris Ingraham, 2020-07-27 In Gestures of Concern Chris Ingraham shows that while gestures such as sending a Get Well card may not be instrumentally effective, they do exert an intrinsically affective force on a field of social relations From liking, sharing, posting, or swiping to watching a TED Talk or wearing an I Voted sticker, such gestures operate as much through affective registers as they do through overt symbolic action Ingraham demonstrates that gestures of concern are central to establishing the necessary conditions for larger social or political change because they give the everyday aesthetic and rhetorical practices of public life the capacity to attain some socially legible momentum Rather than supporting the notion that vociferous public communication is the best means for political and social change, Ingraham advances the idea that concerned gestures can help to build the affective communities that orient us to one another with an imaginable future in mind Ultimately, he shows how acts that many may consider trivial or banal are integral to establishing those background conditions capable of fostering more inclusive social or political change

Neoliberal Feminism and the Discourse of Self-Improvement Giuliana Ferri, 2026-04-30 Neoliberal Feminism and the Discourse of Self-Improvement utilises feminist critical discourse analysis to examine the language and narratives within self-help literature targeted at women Giuliana Ferri critically explores the discourse of self-improvement, focusing on how neoliberal values of empowerment and individual fulfilment have been co-opted by elite feminism as a technology of the self

She unpacks how this discourse constructs an idealised image of the empowered woman one who is portrayed as capable of overcoming patriarchy through the affirmation of innate strength and resilience Drawing on Marxist feminism and feminist social reproduction theory the book highlights how neoliberal feminism markets women as entrepreneurs badass feminists and successful working mothers all while obscuring the realities of increasing work precarization and flexibilisation in post industrial societies Through its feminist critical discourse analysis the book reveals how these seemingly empowering narratives shift the responsibility for systemic change onto individuals rather than positioning feminism as a collective anti capitalist movement for liberation By integrating applied linguistics with Marxist feminism and social reproduction theory this text provides a unique interdisciplinary perspective making it a key reading for scholars and students of language gender and economic systems
