Media Libraries in an Age of Unending Consumption Mike Van Esler, 2023-10-24 As the home video market upended traditional film industry models media libraries emerged as important sources of ancillary revenue The inflection point for media library exploitation came in 2007 when Netflix launched its streaming service relying on extensive licensing of film and television libraries to grow its subscriber base In this book Mike Van Esler examines how media libraries and business models have evolved since the home video era with particular emphasis placed on the streaming age of the past fifteen years Van Esler argues that media libraries have grown beyond their usages from the pre home video era to become central to today's corporate media strategy By studying the ways in which media library exploitation has scaled up since the turn of the new millennium the author identifies insights into larger media industry trends Ultimately this book explores the intersection of corporate media independent distributors private equity tech companies and audiences Scholars of media studies business and sociology will find this book of particular interest The Global Film Market Transformation in the Post-Pandemic Era

Qiao Li, David Wilson, Yanqiu Guan, 2023-05-04 This book reviews the development and performance of the global film industry during the COVID 19 pandemic and examines new trends in film production distribution and consumption through a global lens The COVID 19 pandemic has had a substantial impact on the global film industry since the beginning of 2020 There has been significant transformation in terms of film production distribution and consumption Hollywood like many national cinemas across the globe has suffered the most significant impact at all levels the interruption of new film productions shutdowns of movie theatres in many countries and delays in the release of new films among them Many movies made for cinemas were forced to move from release in theatres to various streaming platforms and nontraditional production companies continued to grow their market share This book places the global film industry in a post Pandemic context It provides detailed analyses of specific systems of film production distribution and consumption in national cinemas as well as in Hollywood while also engaging with the key theoretical and methodological questions from the film studies literature This volume is a critical reference for students and scholars of film studies and general readers who are interested in the new trends and transformation of the global film industry in a post pandemic era The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license Guatemala News Watch, 1991 Max Brand's Best Stories Max Brand, 1967
