Sports on New York Radio David J. Halberstam, 1999 Radio is purely the announcer s medium Accordingly most of the best sports broadcasting has been done not on television but on radio David Halberstam writes from the knowledgeable and nuanced perspective of one who practices respects and understands the craft and its history Bob Costas NBC Sports Some of my friends and associates do not believe there was civilization before television but I assure them that listening to Red Barber on radio from Ebbets Field or to Marty Glickman from Madison Square Garden was better than watching television It was magic Sports on New York Radio brings back memories of that magic Reading about the many gifted radio voices who covered the Dodgers Yankees Giants Rangers Jets the fights and so much more reinforces my early conviction that I would never be a broadcaster How I made it to even the brink of such company still baffles me Dick Schaap ABC News The Sports Reporters ESPN I grew up with Red Barber Mel Allen and Marty Glickman They were warm friendly great voices Through the radio they brilliantly linked the fan with the game David Halberstam captures the colorful history and many great memories of sports on the radio Robert Merrill 1 1 2 New York Yankees New York Metropolitan Opera The next best thing to sports on radio is reading about the perfect marriage of sports and radio Halberstam takes us there The information is riveting the anecdotes hilarious Radio lives in these pages Vic Ziegel Columnist New York Daily News Sports radio in New York has spawned many broadcast legends and David Halberstam has captured them in his thoughtful book David W Checketts President and CEO Madison Square Garden Newsweek ,1973 The New York Times Biographical Service ,1988 A compilation of current
