Partisan Rhetoric and Polarization Robert X. Browning, 2024-12-15 Partisan Rhetoric and Polarization The Year in C SPAN Archives Research Volume 10 features chapters written from a variety of perspectives that address divisions in American politics The topics range widely including TikTok abortion the middle class the January 6 riot and partisan rhetoric in Congress The unifying theme of the volume is that each author uses C SPAN videos to examine how members of Congress and other elites speak and act on these issues Two other thoughtful pieces examine Supreme Court justices speaking off the bench and emotional reactions in presidential debates Partisan Rhetoric and Polarization provides context to understand how the partisan split in American politics is reflected and evidenced in even the highest political institutions Congress the presidency and the Supreme Court

Governing Cross-Border Data Flows Svetlana Yakovleva, 2024-02-27 Governing Cross Border Data Flows explores how the European Union can simultaneously reconcile and pursue two important legal and policy objectives namely protecting fundamental rights guaranteed under the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights EU Charter concerning privacy and personal data while also maintaining and developing a binding rules based global trading system to ensure appropriate access to foreign digital markets for EU businesses The book demonstrates a significant conflict between international trade law and European data privacy law when it comes to the governance of cross border flows of personal data To resolve the tensions caused by this clash the book proposes concrete and detailed ways to ameliorate the situation from both ends international trade and personal data protection specifically through reforms of both international trade and chapter V of the General Data Protection Regulation GDPR To explain how such reforms could be effectuated Yakovleva examines the role of discourse in the evolution of trade law in the last two decades The book also paves the way for the further research necessary to design a fully fledged reform proposal of the EU framework for the transfer of personal data outside the European Economic Area
