Science Experiments Goodreads Choice Prices:

Choice & Voice Stephanie Fleck, Jolene Heinemann, 2020-08-15 What we allow our students to read tells them which stories we value and which we don't. Give students the power to develop reading lives that will endure beyond school walls. Collaborative Reader Workshop allows for student choice in reading, writing, and speaking, provides an authentic audience for student work, strengthens academic ELA skills, builds a wider school community of readers, and fosters lifelong reading habits. Fleck and Heinemann offer teachers a clear model to establish this interactive reader workshop model in their classrooms, as well as tools to get them started. Readers will have a reinvigorated excitement about independent reading and justification for its relevance in the classroom.

Everything and Less Mark McGurl, 2021-10-19 National Book Critics Circle Award Finalist, Best Book of Fall, Esquire, and a Most Anticipated Book of 2021, Lit Hub. What Has Happened to Fiction in the Age of Platform Capitalism? Since it was first launched in 1994, Amazon has changed the world of literature. The Everything Store has not just transformed how we buy books; it has affected what we buy and even what we read. In Everything and Less, acclaimed critic Mark McGurl explores this new world where writing is no longer categorized as high or lowbrow literature or popular fiction. Charting a course spanning from Henry James to E. L. James, McGurl shows that contemporary writing has less to do with writing per se than with the manner of its distribution. This consumerist logic, if you like this you might also like, has reorganized the fiction universe so that literary prize winners sit alongside fantasy, romance, fan fiction, and the infinite list of hybrid genres and self-published works. This is an innovation to be cautiously celebrated. Amazon's platform is not just a retail juggernaut but an aesthetic experiment driven by an unseen algorithm rivaling in the depths of its effects any major cultural shift in history. Here, all fiction is genre fiction, and the niches range from the categories of crime and science fiction to the more refined interests of Adult Baby Diaper Lover, erotica. Everything and Less is a hilarious and insightful map of both the commanding heights and sordid depths of fiction past and present that opens up an arresting conversation about why it is we read and write fiction in the first place.

Science Education: A Global Perspective Ben Akpan, 2016-08-03 Science Education: A Global Perspective is global both in content and authorship. Its 17 chapters by an assemblage of seasoned and knowledgeable science educators from many parts of the world seek to bring to the fore current developments in science education and their implications. The book thus covers a wide range of topics in science education from various national and international perspectives. These include the nature of science, science and religion, evolution, curriculum, and pedagogy; context-based teaching and learning; science and national development; socially responsible science education; equitable access for women and girls in science and technology education; and the benefits of science education research. It ends on an optimistic note by looking at science education in 50 years' time with a recommendation among others for stakeholders to take the responsibility of preparing children towards a blossoming science education sector in an anticipated future world. This book is suitable for use by discerning researchers, teachers, undergraduate and postgraduate students in science.
