Crafting the Customer Experience For People Not Like You Kelly McDonald, 2012-10-09 Deliver a better business experience for every kind of customer. A one-size-fits-all approach to customer service is no longer viable. Businesses competing on service need to understand and cater to customers' racial, ethnic, religious, generational, and geographic differences in order to meet or exceed customers' service expectations. Crafting the Customer Experience to People Not Like You shows how companies, brands, and products struggling to differentiate themselves in a sea of sameness can foster long-term loyalty and brand preference with exceptional and customized customer service. A detailed guide to core customer groups including women, the five generations (matures, Boomers, Gen X, Gen Y, and Gen Z), racial and ethnic segments such as Hispanics and African Americans, as well as those who are defined by key lifestyle and life stage attributes. Includes consumer insights that will help business leaders deliver a better business experience with every customer. You cannot control the economy, the stock market, or the costs of goods and labor. But you can control your organization's customer service. It's an empowering thought: Customer service is 100% in your control at all times, and it's more important than ever.

Dry Goods Merchants Trade Journal, 1927     The Lilaguide: Baby-Friendly Atlanta Area Lissa Poirot, 2005-09. Like they say, everything changes when you have a baby. That's why the Lilaguide has become the essential item on every new parent's checklist. Most parents wish their baby came with some sort of user-friendly handbook. Luckily, babies come with a lot of excellent word-of-mouth advice from other parents and friends. In fact, we found that nearly every parent out there has a great piece of child-rearing advice, such as which baby store is the most helpful or which restaurant tolerates strained carrots on the floor. Someone we thought should write this stuff down. And that's how, please pardon the pun, the Lilaguide was born. Our guides are literally written by parents for parents through thousands of volunteer surveys. It's what happens when someone does write all the parent wisdom down, organizes it, calculates it, and presents it in an easy-to-use format.
