An Introduction To Land Law Digital:

Teaching Legal Education in the Digital Age Ann Thanaraj, Kris Gledhill, 2022-10-14 Teaching Legal Education in the Digital Age explores how legal pedagogy and curriculum design should be modernised to ensure that law students have a realistic view of the future of the legal profession Using future readiness and digital empowerment as central themes chapters discuss the use of technology to enhance the design and delivery of the curriculum and argue the need for the curriculum to be developed to prepare students for the use of technology in the workplace The volume draws together a range of contributions to consider the impact of digital pedagogies in legal education and propose how technology can be used in the law curriculum to enhance student learning in law schools and lead excellence in teaching Throughout the authors consider what it means to be future ready and what we can do as law academics to facilitate the knowledge skills and dispositions needed by future ready graduates Part of Routledge's series on Legal Pedagogy this book will be of great interest to academics post graduate students teachers and researchers of law as well as those with a wider interest in legal pedagogy or legal practice
