Qualitative Research in Action a Canadian Primer Deborah K. Van Den Hoonaard & Lisa-Jo Van Den Scott, Navigating Integration Policies of Forced Migration in the United States Wa'ed Alshoubaki, 2024-05-26 This book investigates the integration of Syrian refugees in the United States and it identifies the challenges that hinder their successful integration After providing a comprehensive analysis of the U S legal instruments in national and international laws and obligations to receive forced migrants the book then highlights the resettlement process and programs as a coordinated interagency process that entails a collaboration between the UN Refugee Agency and the related U S departments and agencies and the nongovernmental partners and refugee advocacy organizations Moreover it delves into integration as a proxy theory and governance that entails an analytical component from a theoretical lens to understand some aspects of realities that revolve around the resettlement of forced migrants concepts principles and policies Built on rich qualitative data from Syrian refugees in the U S to understand their resettlement experiences and their integration in multidimensional analysis the book shows how the lack of federally driven integration policies and institutions in the U S negatively affects just integration Relying on voluntary organizations leads to uneven outcomes among forced migrants affecting social equity Alongside this book's theoretical and practical implications it highlights the ethical consideration of studying forced migrants and the synergy between forced migrants vulnerability and cultural sensitivity Ultimately the book discusses the roadmap for implementing integration policies in the U S Among the topics covered Introduction The History of Managing Forced Migration in the U S Political Climate and Global Events The U S Legal and Institutional Frameworks of the Resettlement of Syrian Refugees The Syrian Refugees Integration Challenges in the U S and the Roadmap for Integration Policies Navigating Integration Policies of Forced Migration in the United States The Case of Syrian Refugees is relevant reading for researchers who are interested in integration and refugee related topics academics who conduct research in social policies refugee integration and resettlement public policymakers who are involved in formulating refugee integration policies practitioners at various levels who assist resettled forced migrants and graduate students studying political science public administration social work and sociology Politicians with left wing views who are advocating for improved human security for everyone also would find the book a useful resource

Abortion
Shannon Stettner, Kristin Burnett, Travis Hay, 2017-12-01 When Henry Morgentaler Canada's best known abortion rights advocate died in 2013 activists and scholars began to reassess the state of abortion in this country In Abortion some of the foremost researchers in Canada challenge current thinking by revealing the discrepancy between what people are experiencing on the ground and what people believe the law to be after the 1988 Morgentaler decision Grouped into four themes History Experience Politics and Reproductive Justice these essays showcase new theoretical frameworks and approaches from law history medicine women's studies and political science as they document the diversity of abortion experiences across the country from those of Indigenous women in the pre Morgentaler era to a lack of access in the age of so called decriminalization Together the contributors make a case for shifting the debate from abortion rights to reproductive justice and caution against focusing on choice or medicalization without understanding the broader context of why and when people seek out abortions

Aging People, Aging Places Maxwell Hartt, Samantha Biglieri, Mark W. Rosenberg, Sarah Nelson, 2021-03-31 How well do the places where we live support the wellbeing of older adults The Canadian population is growing older and is reshaping the nation's economic social and cultural future However the built and social environments of many communities neighbourhoods and cities have not been designed to help Canadians age well Bringing together academic research practitioner reflections and personal narratives from older adults across Canada this cutting edge text provides a rare spotlight on the local implications of aging in Canadian cities and communities It explores employment housing transportation cultural safety health planning and more to provide a wide ranging and comprehensive discussion of how to build supportive communities for Canadians of all ages

Behavioural Public Policy in Australia Sarah Ball, 2022-09-14 Using rich ethnographic data and first hand experience Ball presents a detailed account of Australia's attempts to incorporate behavioural insights into its public policy Ball identifies three competing interpretations of behavioural public policy and how these interpretations have influenced the use of this approach in practice The first sees the process as an opportunity to introduce more rigorous evidence The second interpretation focuses on increasing compliance cost savings and cutting red tape The last focuses on the opportunity to better involve citizens in policy design These interpretations demonstrate different solutions to a series of dilemmas that the Australian Public Service and others have confronted in the last 50 years including growing politicisation technocracy and a disconnect from the needs of citizens

Ball offers a detailed account of how these priorities have shaped how behavioural insights have been implemented in policy making as well as reflecting on the challenges facing policy work more broadly An essential read for practitioners and scholars of policy making especially in Australia Alberta Journal of Educational Research ,2000 Current Index to Journals in Education ,2000 Evidence-based Practice Martin Dawes,2005 This book describes the processes involved in evidence based practice It deals with the issues of question formulation searching literature databases critical appraisal including economic analysis and qualitative research implementation and change It takes the reader through all the steps of becoming an evidence based practitioner focusing on how to use how to use evidence for patient care Promoting the Dignity and Worth of People in Social Work Emmanuel Janagan Johnson,2019-06-10 The Global Agenda for Social Work 2012 calls on social work educators and practitioners who witness the daily realities of personal social and community challenges to design and strengthen the profile and visibility of social work and to enable social workers to make a stronger contribution to policy development This volume responds to the need to examine how practitioners respond to this call to address current social realities It also explores how local practitioners experience current social challenges and how they respond to them with creative and innovative social work practice Topics investigated here include the use of a Mindfulness perspective to help people with a substance use disorder the challenge of dealing with dementia male juvenile reintegration in Trinidad and Tobago and the patterns of childhood behaviours amongst others Canadian Books in Print ,2001 Action Learning and Its Applications Robert Dilworth,Yury Boshyk,2010-02-10 This second volume of two discusses the employment of action learning in different contexts including healthcare education government military and the business world Use of action learning in delivery of Future Search Conferences is addressed as well as action learning in community and civil society and the future of action learning Canadian Journal of Counselling ,1986 Learning Disabled Services at Minnesota's Two Year Institutions Yvonne Redmond-Brown,1996 Canadian Journal of Physiology and Pharmacology ,1995 Sociological Abstracts ,2004 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers Studies in Curriculum Decision Making Kenneth A.
