The Journal of Student Financial Aid, 1997 Like Nobody's Business Andrew C. Comrie, 2021-02-23 How do university finances really work From flagship public research universities to small private liberal arts colleges there are few aspects of these institutions associated with more confusion myths or lack of understanding than how they fund themselves and function in the business of higher education Using simple approachable explanations supported by clear illustrations this book takes the reader on an engaging and enlightening tour of how the money flows How does the university really pay for itself Why do tuition and fees rise so fast Why do universities lose money on research Do most donations go to athletics Grounded in hard data original analyses and the practical experience of a seasoned administrator this book provides refreshingly clear answers and comprehensive insights for anyone on or off campus who is interested in the business of the university how it earns its money how it spends it and how it all works

The Business of Higher Education Noam Arzt, 2018-10-09 Originally published in 1995 The Business of Higher Education focuses on innovation in student financial services It looks at the area of banking function as a tool for colleges and universities and how this can be used to meet the market demand for new services It also addresses how this can be used to balance the financial aid budget The book documents just how much each colleges and universities have changed over the last decade and how each has changed given that market forces increasingly shape institutional aspirations
