Four Arguments For The Elimination Of Television:

Four Arguments for the Elimination of Television Jerry Mander, 2013-08-13 Persuasive interesting and unusual Kirkus Reviews A total departure from previous writing about television this book is the first ever to advocate that the medium is not reformable Its problems are inherent in the technology itself and are so dangerous to personal health and sanity to the environment and to democratic processes that TV ought to be eliminated forever Weaving personal experiences with meticulous research the author ranges widely over aspects of television that have rarely been examined and never before joined together allowing an entirely new frightening image to emerge The idea that all technologies are neutral benign instruments that can be used well or badly is thrown open to profound doubt Speaking of TV reform is in the words of the author as absurd as speaking of the reform of a technology such as guns Praise for the work of Jerry Mander Lively provocative Publishers Weekly A skilled writer Kirkus Reviews starred review God & Culture D. A. Carson, John Woodbridge, 2020-07-30 This book examines a number of facets of contemporary culture and sets forth what thoughtful Christians have been and should be thinking about each one Written in honor of Carl F H Henry on the occasion of his eightieth birthday the essays in God and Culture are on these topics and by these contributors hermeneutics Kevin J Vanhoozer pluralism D A Carson eschatology Geoffrey W Bromiley anthropology Robert J Priest psychology Warren J Heard Jr philosophy George I Mavrodes history Lewis W Spitz economics Ian Smith law Phillip E Johnson politics Sir Fred Catherwood literature Leland Ryken art Edmund P Clowney media Larry W Poland science Charles B Thaxton environment Loren Wilkinson bioethics Nigel M de S Cameron human sexuality Armand M Nicholi Jr personal life style and leisure J I Packer Each of these authors has demonstrated a profound interest in thinking Christianly about his subject Some of the essays scan the ways previous Christians have tried to evaluate each cultural slice all of them offer some guidance regarding what Christians need to bear in mind as our culture rushes on Some contributors adopt the well known grid of H Richard Niebuhr in his classic Christ and Culture others cut fresh paths The aim throughout is to foster fidelity to Christ and his gospel while encouraging a comprehensive Christian outlook on our rapidly changing world Commonsense Rebellion Bruce E. Levine, 2001 Nearly one in four American adults are on psychiatric drugs and Ritalin production has increased 800 percent since 1990 yet the mental health industry laments the fact that two thirds of us with diagnosable mental disorders do not seek treatment The author argues that institutional mental health s ever increasing diseases disorders and drugs divert us from examining an important rebellion This rebellion mainly passive and too often self destructive is against an increasingly impersonal and coercive institutional society Institutional society s worship of speed power and technology has created fantastic wealth at least for some of us but its disregard for human autonomy community and diversity has come with a cost fundamental cultural and therapeutic project both legitimize the subtlety complexity and depth of experience in an age when the meaning of experience has been abandoned to the dictates of pharmaceutical technology economics and medical psychiatry The contributors reveal how Jung s relationship to the phenomenological tradition can be and is being developed
