The Idea Hunter Andy Boynton,Bill Fischer,2011-04-26 A different way of discovering and developing the best business ideas Jack Welch once said Someone somewhere has a better idea In this myth busting book the authors reveal that great business ideas do not spring from innate creativity or necessarily from the brilliant minds of people. Rather, great ideas come to those who are in the habit of looking for great ideas all around them all the time. Too often people fall into the trap of thinking that the only worthwhile idea is a thoroughly original one. Idea Hunters know better. They understand that valuable ideas are already out there waiting to be found and not just in the usual places. Shows how to expand your capacity to find and develop winning business ideas. Explains why ideas are a critical asset for every manager and professional, not just for those who do creative. Reveals how to seek out and select the ideas that best serve your purposes and goals and define who you are as a professional. Offers practical tips on how to master the everyday habits of an Idea Hunter which include cultivating great conversations. The book is filled with illustrative accounts of successful Idea Hunters and stories from thriving idea companies. Warren Buffet, Walt Disney, Thomas Edison, Mary Kay Ash, Twitter, and Pixar Animation Studios are among the many profiled.

The Arts in Mind Ruth Katz, Ruth HaCohen, 2003-01-01

A major shift in critical attitudes toward the arts took place in the eighteenth century. The fine arts were now looked upon as a group divorced from the sciences and governed by their own rules. The century abounded with treatises that sought to establish the overriding principles that differentiate art from other walks of life, as well as the principles that differentiate them from each other. This burst of scholarly activity resulted in the incorporation of aesthetics among the classic branches of philosophy, heralding the cognitive turn in epistemology. Among the writings that initiated this turn, none were more important than the British contribution. The Arts in Mind brings together an annotated selection of these key texts. A companion volume to the editors' Tuning the Mind, which analyzed this major shift in world view and its historical context, The Arts in Mind is the first representative sampling of what constitutes an important school of British thought. The texts are neither obscure nor forgotten, although most histories of eighteenth-century thought treat them in a partial or incomplete way. Here they are made available, complete or through representative extracts, together with an editor's introduction to each selection, providing essential biographical and intellectual background. The treatises included are representative of the changed climate of opinion which entailed new issues such as those of perception, symbolic function, and the role of history and culture in shaping the world. Contents include: Anthony Ashley Cooper, Third Earl of Shaftesbury, Characteristics; Francis Hutcheson, Inquiry Concerning Beauty, Harmony, and Design; Hildebrand Jacob, Of the Sister Arts; An Essay; James Harris, On Music, Painting, and Poetry; Charles Avison, An Essay on Musical Expression; James Beattie, Essay on Poetry and Music as They Affect the Mind; Daniel Webb, Observations on the Correspondence between Poetry and Music; Thomas Twining, On Poetry, Considered as an Imitative Art; On the Different Senses of the Word Imitative as Applied to Music by the Ancients and by the Moderns; Adam Smith, Of the Nature of that Imitation which Takes Place in What are Called the Imaginative Arts. Ruth Katz is Emanuel Alexandre, Professor of Musicology at the Hebrew University in Jerusalem. She is co-editor with Carl Dahlhaus of Contemplating Music, a four-volume study of the philosophy of music. Ruth HaCohen is Clarica and Fred Davidson Senior

Lecturer of Musicology at the Hebrew University
