Choc Chip Hooray!

Have you ever had the most delicious ice cream and then seen it in the store, or found that what you ate in the store was not the same as the one that you bought for home? That's because of the way that ice cream is made.

Ice cream is made by blending together a mixture of pure cream and milk with a mixture of sweetening such as sugar. Pure cream adds softness to what makes it so delicious. Milk is added to make it creamy. In a matter of seconds, the cream and milk are blended together to make a smooth, creamy mixture. The mixture is then heated and cooled to form a soft, creamy mass. In the factory, this mass is then put into containers and stored for you to enjoy it at home.

The factory people who make ice cream use special machines to make it. It is a high-pressure process that is done in a clean environment. The cream and milk are mixed together in a large vat. The mixture is then heated and cooled to form a soft, creamy mass. In the factory, this mass is then put into containers and stored for you to enjoy it at home.

Now, for the best ice cream, you need pure cream and milk. Making good ice cream takes time and care. It is not just about putting cream and milk together. There are many steps to make it.
