The Vietnam War, 1954–1975

Lesson 2 Vietnam Divides the Nation

Review Questions: Outlining

DIRECTIONS: Read the lesson and complete the outline below. Refer to your textbook to fill in the blanks.

- I. The Antiwar Movement Emerges
- A. As the Vietnam War dragged on, support waned because many believed that the Johnson administration was not telling the truth about the war.
 - B. Many Americans believed a credibility gap existed because of inconsistencies between what was shown by media and what the administration said about the war.
 - C. Students and teachers at universities held teach-ins to explain why they opposed the war, while many protesters focused on what they thought was an unfair draft system. Most of the soldiers were working-class and minority youths.
 - D. As the war went on, many young men burned their draft cards while an estimated 500,000 refused to go.

Many soldiers argued that if they were old enough to fight, they were old enough to vote. The 26th amendment gave 18-year-olds the right to vote. Antiwar activists and peace activists supported the antiwar movement and opposed the war.

II. The Peace Year

- A. Senators criticized the administration about its conduct of the war and South Vietnam. This attack, called the Tet Offensive, was repelled. Americans, however, were convinced that an armistice was necessary and supported a large-scale attack.
- B. Johnson announced the cease-fire with the North Vietnamese that he would not seek re-election.
- C. His administration ended the war. MLK Jr. was assassinated in 1968. Robert Kennedy was assassinated in the run for the Democratic Party nomination for president in the primary election in 1968. Republican candidate Richard Nixon was elected president in 1968. The country was in the midst of the war and order was restored to the country.
