Capitalism At The Crossroads Next Generation Business:

Capitalism at the Crossroads Stuart L. Hart, 2010-06-15 Today's era of economic crisis has sent a powerful message. The age of mercenary capitalism is ending. We must finally embark on a new age of sustainable stakeholder based capitalism. While enlightened executives and policymakers understand the critical need for change, few have tangible plans for making it happen. In Capitalism at the Crossroads: Next Generation Business Strategies for a Post-Crisis World, Third Edition, Stuart L. Hart presents new strategies for identifying sustainable products, technologies, and business models that will drive urgently needed growth and help solve social and environmental problems at the same time. Drawing on his experience consulting with top companies and NGOs worldwide, Hart shows how to craft your optimal sustainability strategy and overcome the limitations of traditional greening approaches. In this edition, he presents new and updated case studies from the United States and around the world, demonstrating what's working and what isn't. He also guides business leaders in building an organizational infrastructure for sustainability, one that can survive budgeting and boardrooms, recharging innovation and growth throughout your enterprise. Discover the new business case for pursuing sustainable capitalism. Sustainability strategies that go far beyond environmental sensitivity. How to fully embed your enterprise in the local context and why you should. Tactics for making long-term sustainability work in a short-term world.

CEO of Tandus Group Stuart L Hart makes a very important contribution to the understanding of how enterprise can help save the world's environment. Crucial reading. Hernando de Soto, President of The Institute for Liberty and Democracy and author of The Mystery of Capital. Stuart Hart's insights into the business sense of sustainability come through compellingly in Capitalism at the Crossroads. Any businessperson interested in the long view will find resonance with his wise reasoning. Ray Anderson, Founder and Chairman, Interface Inc. This stimulating book documents the central role that business will play in humanity's efforts to develop a sustainable global economy. Professor Hart presents an attractive vision of opportunity for those corporations that develop the new technologies, new business models, and new mental frames that are essential to a sustainable future. Jeffrey Lehman, Former President of Cornell University. The people of the world are in desperate need of new ideas if global industrial development is ever to result in something other than the rich getting richer and the poor getting poorer with nature and potentially all of us suffering the collateral damage. Few have contributed more to meeting this need over the past decade than Stuart Hart by helping to illuminate the potential role for business and new thinking in business strategy in the journey ahead. Capitalism at the Crossroads challenges, provokes, and no doubt will stimulate many debates which is exactly what is needed. Peter Senge, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Chairperson of the Society for Organizational Learning and author of The Fifth Discipline: The Art and Practice of The Learning Organization. New Foreword by Al Gore. Brand New Second Edition, Completely Revised with Up to the minute trends and lessons learned. New and updated case studies. The latest corporate responses to climate change, energy, and terrorism. Global capitalism stands at a crossroads facing terrorism, environmental destruction, and anti-globalization backlash. Today's global companies are at a crossroads too, searching desperately for new sources of profitable growth. Stuart L Hart's Capitalism at the Crossroads Second Edition is about solving both of those problems at the same time. It's about igniting new growth by creating sustainable products that solve urgent societal problems. It's about using new technology to deliver profitable solutions that reduce poverty and protect the environment. It's about becoming truly indigenous to all your markets and avoiding the pitfalls of first-generation greening and sustainability strategies. Hart has thoroughly revised this seminal book with new case studies, trends, and lessons learned, including the latest experiences of leaders like GE and Wal-Mart. You'll find new insights from the pioneering BoP Protocol initiative in which multinationals are incubating new businesses in income-poor communities. You'll also discover creative new ways in which corporations are responding to global warming and terrorism. More than ever, this book points the way toward a capitalism that's more inclusive, more welcome, and far more successful for both companies and communities worldwide. Paths to profitable sustainability. Lessons from GE and Wal-Mart. Shattering the trade-off myth. New commercial strategies for serving the base of the pyramid. What enterprises have learned about doing business in income-poor regions. Becoming indigenous for real for good. Codiscovering new opportunities, cocreating new businesses with the poor. Learning from leaders. 20 new and updated case studies. Best practices from DuPont, HP, Unilever, SC Johnson, Tata, P&G.
