Dear [Mr./Mrs./Ms.] [Hiring Manager's Name],

Upon learning about the job vacancy for the position of Private Practice Therapist at , I am keen to put forth my candidacy for the same. My 10 + years of experience in treating patients, strong academic background, and role-specific skills have positioned me well for surpassing your expectations from the role. I have earned my Master's degree in Counselling Psychology and have been providing counseling services to children, couples, families, and adolescents. I am passionate about helping people and helping them overcome their deadliest or most challenging situations and supporting them till they make their lives happier and healthier. My proven track record of success includes my significant contribution to the NGO students at * who were all affected by some or other mental disorders. With continuous counselling and therapy sessions, I have made more than 25 students from that group reach great heights today. On this note, I would like to present to you some of the core responsibilities that make me worth this role-

- Examining the patients with the utmost care, assessing and diagnosing their issues through continuous and consistent counselling and hearing sessions, and developing customized treatment plans based on each individual's needs and mental state.
- Superior communication skills enabling me to interact with people coming from different walks of life, and this led to more than 75% success in making patients open up and speak their views out within one/two sittings.
- Observing the treatment plans, and the changes it brings in the patient, and changing the plans based on the behavioural patterns and thought process.
- Ensuring speedy recovery of patients, while concentrating and adhering to medical norms and policies.
- Maintaining a high level of discretion when it comes to the confidentiality of patient details.
- Participating in ongoing learning sessions, by actively attending conferences, and seminars and conducting mental awareness programs in educational institutions, and corporate offices.

Throughout my professional career, I have developed my skillset in diagnosing, devising, and implementing therapy strategies, and gained incredible counseling and collaborative approach. I trust my approach to treat patients would make me a significant contributor. I would appreciate the chance to discuss my skillset and fitness for the position in our next meeting.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]
