Digital News and HIV Criminalization Colin Hastings, 2024-12-16 For years HIV activists and researchers have expressed deep concerns about the stigmatizing and sensational tone of news stories about HIV criminalization Digital News and HIV Criminalization investigates the everyday work of journalists and uncovers how newswork routines are hooked into other institutions including the criminal legal system police and public health that regulate the daily lives of people living with HIV This lively institutional ethnography offers key insights into how the digital news media ecosystem is socially organized It reveals that the fast paced conditions of digital news media in the age of convergence journalism require the constant rapid production of sensational news stories that will be consumed widely by online audiences often resulting in news writing that perpetuates social harms connected to stigmatizing racist and anti immigrant views The book illustrates how biased reporting on HIV criminalization reflects broader trends in online news and presents opportunities for HIV activists to form coalitions with other groups negatively affected by the current landscape of convergence journalism Tracing how work that produces and circulates a standard genre of news story about HIV criminalization is coordinated across time and space Digital News and HIV Criminalization offers a groundwork for political action aimed at disrupting the production of

stigmatizing news stories

Cultural Meanings of News Daniel A. Berkowitz,2011 What is news Why does news turn out like it does What factors influence the creation production and dissemination of news Cultural Meanings of News takes on these deceptively simple questions through an essential collection of seminal and contemporary studies by leaders in the fields of mass communication and media studies Similar in format and purpose to editor Dan Berkowitz s award winning Social Meanings of News this new volume represents a conceptual update a continuation of the discourse about the nature of news and how it comes to be moving ideas ahead from the earlier tradition of sociological approaches to the more pervasive cultural perspectives that inform understandings about news Cultural Meanings of News provides a carefully selected set of readings organized into thematic areas that each probe a dimension of the literature from sociological roots to cultural perspectives news as narrative and cultural text newswork as cultural ritual news as cultural myth news and its interpretive communities news as a source and reflection of collective memory toward the future of news research This text reader provides students and scholars with first hand exposure to cultural approaches to the study of news while also providing an organizing framework for understanding the commonalties and differences between threads in the research The goals are to engage readers through guided immersion in the material
