Robert Altman's McCabe & Mrs. Miller Robert T. Self, 2007 Reclaims reframes and reexamines one of acclaimed maverick filmmaker Robert Altman s most accomplished and admired movies McCabe Mrs Miller as a commentary on Western history the Western film the times from which it emerged and as a tribute to a neglected masterpiece of American cinema The Materiality of Narrative Dynamics Stefan Iversen, Evan Van Tassel, 2025-06-02 The dynamic nature of storytelling has long been one of the major concerns of narrative research but relatively little scholarship has engaged with the relationship between storytelling dynamics and the underlying material forms of cultural texts This volume seeks to remedy this by asking questions such as How might the affordances of new media guide audience reception in subtle ways How might the dynamism of legacy media be better recognized when examined through a multimedial lens How do the physical processes of production define the horizons of both authorial activity and audience response The insight that drives these investigations is two fold first that functions and effects of narratives are deeply intertwined with material forces of production distribution and reception and second that an analysis of any specific narrative must include attention to these material matters and how they affect the unfolding of stories over time The chapters in this collection explore interplays between material forces and narrative dynamics across a range of genres and intellectual arenas In doing so they both fill gaps in current methodological frameworks and call attention to the many gaps that are yet to be filled Network Theory and Nashville Zachary Tavin, 2025-12-11 An explanation of network theory s the study of the way elements in a network interact application to film and how it explicates Robert Altman s Nashville 1975 Film Studies Warren Buckland, 2008 Teach Yourself Film Studies is the essential introduction to the exciting world of film Modular Narratives in Contemporary Cinema Allan Cameron, 2008-07-11 Since the early 1990s there has been a trend towards narrative complexity within popular cinema as evidenced by the successes of such films as Pulp Fiction Memento and Run Lola Run Modular Narratives in Contemporary Cinema looks at the way a number of these films play with time and narrative Allan Cameron shows how this formal play reflects a persistent fascination with questions of chance and destiny memory and history and the representation of simultaneous events Subjective Realist Cinema Matthew Campora,2014-03-01 Subjective Realist Cinema looks at the fragmented narratives and multiple realities of a wide range of films that depict subjective experience and employ subjective realist narration including recent examples such as Mulholland Drive Memento and Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind The author proposes that an understanding of the narrative structures of these films particularly their use of mixed and multiple realities enhances viewers enjoyment and comprehension of such films and that such comprehension offers a key to understanding contemporary filmmaking The Return of Storytelling in Contemporary German Literature and Film David N. Transfigurations Asbjørn Grønstad,2008 In many senses viewers have cut their teeth on the violence in American cinema from Anthony Perkins slashing Janet Leigh in the most infamous of shower scenes to the 1970s masterpieces of Martin Scorsese Sam Peckinpah and Francis Ford Coppola to our present day undertakings in imagining global annihilations through terrorism war and alien grudges Transfigurations brings our cultural obsession with film violence into a renewed dialogue with contemporary theory Grnstad argues that the use of violence in Hollywood films should be understood semiotically rather than viewed realistically Tranfigurations thus alters both our methodology of reading violence in films and the meanings we assign to them depicting violence not as a self contained incident but as a convoluted network of our own cultural ideologies and beliefs Pudovkin's Cinema of the 1920s Panayiota Mini,2002 Me and You and Memento and

Fargo J.J. Murphy, 2007-03-15 Within the last twenty five years an enormous burst of creative production has emerged from independent filmmakers From Stranger than Paradise 1984 and Slacker 1991 to Gus Van Sant's Elephant 2003 and Miranda July's Me and You and Everyone We Know 2005 indie cinema has become part of mainstream culture But what makes these films independent Is it simply a matter of budget and production values Or are there aesthetic qualities that set them off from ordinary Hollywood entertainment In this groundbreaking new study J J Murphy argues that the independent feature film from the 1980s to the present has developed a distinct approach of its own centering on new and different conceptions of cinematic storytelling The film script is the heart of the creative originality to be found in the independent movement Even directors noted for their idiosyncratic visual style or the handling of performers typically originate their material and write their own scripts By studying the principles underlying the independent screenplay we gain a direct sense of the originality of this new trend in American cinema Me and You and Memento and Fargo also presents a unique vision for the aspiring screenwriter Most screenwriting manuals and guidebooks on the market rely on formulas believed to generate saleable Hollywood films Many writers present a three act paradigm as gospel and proceed to lay down very stringent rules for characterization plotting timing of climaxes and so on while others who appear to be more open about such rules turn out to be just as inflexible in their advice Through in depth critical analyses of some of the most significant independent films of recent years J J Murphy emphasizes the crucial role that novelty can play in the screenwriting process
