Cross-National Information and Communication Technology Policies and Practices in Education Tjeerd Plomp, Ronald E. Anderson, Nancy Law, Andreas Quale, 2009-03-11 This book explores educational ICT policies in 37 countries providing a comparative analysis of national developments It includes contributions from various authors and support from organizations like the Norwegian Royal Ministry of Education and the Netherlands Kennisnet ICT OP School Foundation

History of Computing in Education J.A.N. Lee, John Impagliazzo, 2006-04-11 This work derives from a conference discussing the history of computing in education This conference is the first of hopefully a series of conferences that will take place within the International Federation for Information Processing IFIP and hence we describe it as the First Conference on the History of Computing in Education HCE1 These proceedings represent a collection of works presented at the HCE1 Conference held in association with the IFIP 2004 World Computer Congress held in Toulouse France Contributions to this volume range from a wide variety of educational perspectives and represent activities from four continents The HCE1 conference represents a joint effort of the IFIP Working Group 9.7 on the History of Computing and the IFIP Technical Committee 3 on Education The HCE1 Conference brings to light a broad spectrum of issues and spans four continents It illustrates topics in computing education as they occurred in the early days of computing whose ramifications or overtones remain with us today Indeed many of the early challenges remain part of our educational tapestry most likely many will evolve into future challenges Therefore this work provides additional value to the reader as it will reflect in part the future development of computing in education to stimulate new ideas and models in educational development

Narratives and Practices of Migrant and Minority Incorporation in European Societies Zenia Hellgren, Alexander Gamst Page, Thomas Sealy, 2025-02-20 This book explores the disjuncture that emerges at various levels in European diversity management policies and their translation into practice It shows that state wide strategies can only guide diversification outcomes not wholly control them and in practice national level integration policies rely on multi level involvement including authorities at regional or local levels and civil society organisations The book demonstrates a complex and varied picture of the ways in which different European countries engage with ethnic diversity as well as to the internal inconsistency of the philosophical underpinnings of this engagement As such it draws attention not just to ways in which diversity is done but illuminates processes and narratives which are messy contested and contradictory This book is of key interest to scholars students and practitioners involved in integration ethnic and cultural diversity studies migration and immigration citizenship ethnicity and more broadly to European studies and the wider social sciences
