Administrative Culture in a Global Context Joseph G. Jabbara,O. P. Dwivedi,2005 This book provides an overview of the administrative challenges facing various nations While bureaucratic structures among nations appear similar the methods of conducting government business vary from nation to nation It is clear however that the process of globalization has narrowed the differences in the operations of administrative systems Practices are being changed to comply with international requirements due to liberalization the WTO and the pressure brought to bear upon governments by multinational corporations Is it possible that the twenty first century could create one universally understood administrative culture The editors of this volume believe diversity in thought and action is more desirable than the self proclaimed universal paradigms originating in the West and that diversity will ultimately lead to a just and sustainable world The major challenge before the non Western nations will be how to maximize the positive effects of globalization and yet keep their identity and their indigenous systems alive but with proper accountability and transparency in governance
