4 International Jewellery Trade World Gold Council:

Indian Gold Jewellery Industry Sylvia Raha, 2024-04-16 India has a long standing cultural and societal affinity with gold and gold jewellery Gold metaphorically represents the sacredness purity and immortality that bind religious beliefs and culture together Accumulation of gold is associated with material and non material cultures where the perceptions attitudes and experiences of the members engaged in production and consumption are bound into a complex relationship The idea of the book initially originated from the course of research work It was found that India has the largest unorganised jewellery industry in terms of manufacturing and consumption unit Jewellery fabrication in India is not just a profession for the jewellers but it has been a family tradition extending across generations Gold jewellery makers sunars swarnakars are the spine of the jewellery industry They acquired the skill of making jewellery from the experienced and learned gold smithery karigars either from their ancestors who were engaged in this business or from the craftsmen cum petty traders The co relations of castes religion culture economy and class are intertwined with each other in such a way that made the gold jewellery industry sustainable Surprisingly there is an absence of literature on understanding the structural and functional aspects of the gold jewellery industry in India This book explores the roles of sunars swarnakars goldsmith or jewellery makers consumers trade and the policies that bring a change in the gold jewellery industry in India and India s position in the global market scenario By focusing on their way of life the book brings unique insights into the social and economic experience of the unorganised gold jewellery sector and the role of consumers in production
