A People's History of the Farmers' Movement, 2020-2021 Shamsheer Singh, Sabah Siddiqui, 2024-09-30 In the annals of India's history a monumental uprising unfolded in 2020 echoing the resilience and coming together of large sections of its agrarian base. Instigated by the contentious farm laws of 2020 the Farmers Movement burgeoned into a year-long saga of protest and perseverance ending only in December 2021 after the passing of the Farm Laws Repeal Bill 2021 by the Indian Parliament. From the initial demand for law repeal to the multifaceted growth of the movement the book traces the journey of the Farmers Movement as each essay dissects the socio-political dynamics, cultural nuances, and mass solidarity that underpinned the protests, including focused analyses from Delhi, Punjab, Haryana, Uttar Pradesh, Rajasthan, Maharashtra, and the Sikh diaspora in the United Kingdom. This anthology chronicles the ebb and flow of a nation's spirit, encapsulating the symbiotic relationship between theory and praxis, between change and continuity. It serves as a testament to the power of collective resistance and a roadmap for future struggles, ensuring that the legacy of the Farmers Movement endures beyond the pages of history. This volume is an interdisciplinary project and will be of interest to scholars from diverse fields such as economics, sociology, public policy, political science, history, political geography, gender studies, cultural studies, international studies, architecture, media studies, psychology, and ethnomusicology.

Punjab Sounds Radha Kapuria, Vebhuti Duggal, 2024-12-13 Punjab Sounds nuances our understanding of the region's imbrications with sound. It argues that rather than being territorially bounded, the region only emerges in regioning, i.e. in words, gestures, objects, and techniques that do the region. Regioning sound reveals the relationship between sound and the region in three interlinked ways: in doing, knowing, and feeling the region through sound. The volume covers several musical genres of the Punjab region, including within its geographical remit, the Punjabi diaspora, and east and west Punjab. It also provides new understandings of the role that ephemeral cultural expressions, especially music and sound, play in the formulation of Punjabi identity. Featuring contributions from scholars across North America, South Asia, Europe, and the UK, it brings together diverse perspectives. The chapters use a range of different methods, ranging from computational analysis and ethnography to close textual analysis, demonstrating some of the ways in which research on music and sound can be carried out. The chapters will be relevant for anyone working on Punjab's music, including the Punjabi diaspora, music and sound in the Global South. Moreover, it will be useful for undergraduate and postgraduate students in the following areas: ethnomusicology, cultural studies, film studies, music studies, South Asian studies, Punjab studies, history, and sound studies, among others.

Aiming to green studies of music and performance, this book explores intersections between ethnography, history, eco and ethnomusicology, and film and performance studies, by paying particular attention to the ecological turn, more broadly visible in South Asian studies. The essays in the volume take inspiration from these different methodological strains in recent scholarship connecting the environment with South Asian music and performance traditions The contributors address varied ecological settings of South Asian music and performance from riverscapes to coastal communities and from the locations of instrument makers to negotiations of the climate crisis and the COVID 19 pandemic The book also covers the vast geographical sweep of South Asia from Pakistan in the northwest to Sri Lanka in the south and from Bangladesh in the east to the Malabar coast of southwest India The novelty of the volume lies not just in mapping the dialogism between ecology and music through reflections on liminality gender resistance and identity but also in bringing forth new archival strategies digitisation and digital cultures in conversation with ethnographic findings This book will be of value to students and scholars of arts and environmental studies particularly those interested in the relationship between art culture and environment within the realm of South Asian music and performance traditions The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of South Asia Journal of South Asian Studies and are accompanied by a new Foreword by Jim Sykes and an Afterword by Sugata Ray
