Planning Urban Places Mary Ganis,2015-06-19 Urban change is often difficult because we are dealing with people s elusive notions of place and perception time and change Urban design and planning in a changing urban context so that it remains relevant for people is elusive because the idea of place is embedded in memory and identity but whose memory and whose identity This book seeks to understand the urban change dynamic so that the planning of urban places aligns with the dynamic of people s perception of place Planning Urban Places examines the premise that building cities is a concrete business surrounded by a shifting context It discusses the notion of urban design and placemaking from the perspective of place perception and cognitive psychology place philosophy and human geography It also considers network theory to help illustrate the self organising paradigm of small word network theory for planning urban places Transgressive Citizenship and the Struggle for Social Justice Lucy Earle,2017-03-29 This book analyses the struggle for social justice in S o Paulo Brazil It takes the wave of protests that began in the city in 2013 as a starting point and grounds them in the history of social movement mobilisation in urban Brazil Drawing on ethnographic fieldwork with a federation of housing movements this work demonstrates the ongoing relevance of the concept of the right to the city for social movements of the urban poor and examines these movements creative interpretation of national legislation to support their claims for housing and urban citizenship Empowering Municipal Sustainability Alexandra Reed Lajoux,2021-11-08 Amidst growing awareness over the past half century that human activity threatens our natural environment many of the world s largest cities have played a role in the sustainability movement as seen by such initiatives as Day of Cities sponsored by the United Nations And now local governments in towns and smaller cities are beginning to play a more prominent role in the green movement This book inspired by the author s own experience as a citizen activist and local candidate is a guide for local governments and citizens wishing to launch sustainability campaigns and programs that make a lasting difference in our world Alexandra Reed Lajoux addresses the popular green city topic but focuses on smaller municipalities which are more numerous than big cities and in greater need of guidance With a visionary foreword by Ben G Price National Organizer Community Environmental Legal Defense Fund and author of How Wealth Rules the World the book discusses the most critical environmental economic and engineering realities of municipal life and leadership in our times ranging from rights of nature to rollback tax rates to green infrastructure to gentrification It will appeal to a broad range of town or city government employees and elected officials as well as local activists contemplating the issues of managing and funding sustainability that all localities worldwide face at some level Transportation Engineering (Theory & Practice) Raji A K, K K Babu,2025-06-01 Theory and Practice of Climate Adaptation Fátima Alves,Walter Leal Filho,Ulisses Azeiteiro,2018-03-24 Climate change is one of the greatest challenges of our time As such both the Fifth Assessment Report AR5 released by the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change IPCC and the 25th Conference of the Parties COP 25 recommendations call for action not only from government but also from various stakeholders Apart from the knowledge offered by modeling and forecasts which allows the readers to understand the problem and how it is likely to develop in the future the book highlights approaches methods and tools that can help readers cope with the social economic and political problems posed by climate change In other words the book s goal is to accelerate developments in the field of climate change adaptation This book gathers papers presented at the 2nd World Symposium on Climate Change Adaptation a joint initiative by the University of Coimbra Portugal the Research and Transfer Centre Sustainable Development and Climate Change Management at Hamburg University of Applied Sciences Germany and the International Climate Change Information Programme ICCIP The book is truly interdisciplinary covering various key areas in the field of climate change adaptation Its focus is on integrative approaches to implementing climate change adaptation and is expected to contribute to the further development of this fast growing field

Planning Local Economic Development Edward J. Blakely, Nancey Green Leigh, 2010 Since the appearance of the first edition in 1990 Planning Local Economic Development has become the foundation for an entire generation of planners and academics teaching planning Building on the success of its predecessors the Fourth Edition continues to explore the theories of local economic development and address the dilemmas communities face The authors investigate planning processes analytical techniques business and human resource development as well as high technology economic development strategies Written by authors with many years of academic regional and city planning experience this book will prove invaluable to professors of economic development urban studies and public administration Economic development specialists in local and municipal government as well as nonprofit organizations will also find this an essential reference New to the Fourth Edition Completely revised and updated with current research Provides more guidance oriented to third world readers Includes more on issues of urban sustainability such as energy and brown field development Contains added material on the redesign of neighborhoods for sustainable purposes to include new firms and recycling techniques and technologies as new economic engines

Globalization Development and Social Justice Ann El Khoury, 2015-03-27 Are there existing alternatives to corporate globalization What are the prospects for and commonalities between communities and movements such as Occupy the World Social Forum and alternative economies Globalization Development and Social Justice advances the proposition that another globalization is not only possible but already exists It demonstrates that there are multiple pathways towards development with social justice and argues that enabling propositional agency rather than oppositional agency such as resistance is a more effective alternative to neoliberal globalization El Khoury develops a theory of infraglobalization that emphasizes creative constitution not just contestation of global and local processes The book features case studies and examples of diverse economic practice and innovative emergent political forms from the Global South and North These case studies are located in the informal social economy and community development as well as everyday practices from prefigurative politics to community cooperatives and participatory planning This book makes an important contribution to debates about the prospects for and practices of a transformative grassroots globalization and to critical debates about globalization and development strategies It will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations globalization social movement studies political and economic geography sociology anthropology and development studies

An Introduction to Intercultural Communication Fred E. Jandt, 2024-12-05 An Introduction to Intercultural Communication prepares students to successfully navigate our increasingly interconnected global community by introducing essential communication skills and concepts with the goal of cultivating intercultural communication competencies when interacting with different cultures and ethnic groups Best selling author Fred E Jandt offers students unique insights into intercultural communication at home and abroad through a focus on history culture and popular media Emphasis is also placed on the important roles that stories personal experiences and self reflection play in building our intercultural understanding and competence The Eleventh Edition presents the most extensive revision of the text including tying chapter learning objectives to the content a new Point Counterpoint feature to present both sides of controversial issues in intercultural communication to aid in developing critical thinking skills and current examples that speak to the changing dynamics of our global community
