REALITY HUNGER

a manifesto

H A M I S H H A M I L T O N

"I've just finished reading Reality Hunger, and I'm lit up by it—astonished, intoxicated, ecstatic, overwhelmed. It's a poem that's also a mirror; as a result of reading it, I can't stop looking into myself and interrogating my own artistic intentions. It will be published to wild fanfare, because it really is an urgent book: a piece of art-making itself, a sublime, exciting, outrageous, visionary volume."

—Jonathan Lethem

"Aphorism, science, poetry, history, dogma, philosophy, pronouncement, rant, cant, news report, act of faith, funkadelic exploration, literary criticism, one-man wiki, print-page blog, confession, anecdote, truth, and beauty—David Shields's book is that, and more. It tells us who we are and why we read and why the things we read exist and where it all might go to tomorrow."

—Albert Goldworth

"This is the book our sick-at-heart moment needs—like a sock in the jaw or an electric jolt in the solar plexus—to wake it up. Reality Hunger will create sensations of like-mindedness in scattered souls everywhere. Shields has goosed the zeitgeist. The point of the polemic is his pugilistic and performative assertion of appropriation's inevitability: literary artists need to be given the liberties that have long been accorded to visual artists (ever since Duchamp)."

—Wayne Koestenbaum

"Reality Hunger seems to come from one author but in fact is a compendium of quoted passages from writers, poets, rockers, and whatnot—all of it traversing the disputed terrain of the real. It's ambitious but with a mischievous, throwaway feel, like a Lou Reed song. Its parts are so tightly strung together that you can't pick a single thread without involving yourself in the whole shimmering web. Anybody who writes or thinks or breathes is already living inside the questions raised by Reality Hunger, which is one of the most provocative books I've ever read. It's perfect for now, for our time. It has that quality: it's truly great. I think it's destined to become a classic."

—Charles D'Ambrosio

"David Shields's Reality Hunger is a rare and very peculiar thing: a wake-up call that is a pleasure to hear and respond to. A daring combination of montage and essay, it's crammed full of good things. Reading it, I kept thinking, "Yes, exactly. I wish I said that," and then I realized I had."

—Geoff Dyer

"I've just finished (for the first of what I know will not be the only time) Reality Hunger. Shields says things here that I have thought, wished I thought, wished someone would say. A sparky, brainy, passionate, often very funny, and never unadorned or unadorned book, rigorous, demanding but generous and rewarding. It's a book I have written in the margins, underlined, and be-stared many passages and in general have ruined the book as a physical object."

—Patricia Hampl

Reality Hunger A Manifesto David Shields:

Reality Hunger David Shields, 2010-02-23 A landmark book brilliant thoughtful The Atlantic and raw and gorgeous LA Times that fast forwards the discussion of the central artistic issues of our time from the bestselling author of The Thing About Life Is That One Day You'll Be Dead Who owns ideas How clear is the distinction between fiction and nonfiction Has the velocity of digital culture rendered traditional modes obsolete Exploring these and related questions Shields orchestrates a chorus of voices past and present to reframe debates about the veracity of memoir and the relevance of the novel He argues that our culture is obsessed with reality precisely because we experience hardly any and urgently calls for new forms that embody and convey the fractured nature of contemporary experience Reality Hunger David Shields, 2011-04-11 Was ist Realität was ist Wirklichkeit was ist echt und authentisch in welchen Formen stellen wir unser Leben in der Kunst dar Horaz Friedrich Nietzsche Samuel Beckett Thomas Pynchon Nicholson Baker Jean Luc Godard Lars von Trier und viele andere bekannte Namen der Literatur und Kulturgeschichte treffen auf die Google und Facebook Generation sie bilden den aktuellen Hintergrund für eine grundlegend neue Kultur des Sampelns der kreativen Montage von Bildern und der freien Benutzung aller Texte Urheberrechte sind genauso wie die Forderung nach einer naturalistischen Erzählung und nach einer linearen Handlung Relikte aus der alten Welt Shields plädiert in seinem Manifest für die Freiheit von Grenzen seien es die zwischen Fakt und Fiktion bzw zwischen Reportage und Erfindung oder die zwischen Erzählung und Essay Mit seinem ebenso provozierenden wie höchst informativen Werk das selbst zu einem großen Teil aus Zitaten Aphorismen und Anekdoten anderer Autoren besteht regt Shields dazu an traditionelle Ansichten über Originalität Authentizität und Kreativität zu bedenken Man wird sein Buch lieben oder hassen Ohne Zweifel gelingt es ihm jedoch spielend allen Seiten in der kontroversen Debatte auf höchst unterhaltsame Art und Weise Argumente für ihre Diskussion zu liefern Höchst spannend zu lesen auch wenn man mit vielem nicht einverstanden ist Zadie Smith The Guardian Ultrahip The Observer Baudrillard and Theology James Walters, 2012-06-21 Jean Baudrillard was one of the foremost intellectual figures of the late twentieth century and his work is currently reaching a new prominence in the English speaking world Known as the high priest of postmodernity Baudrillard never directly addressed theological concerns However his provocative analysis of the changing nature of reality subjectivity and agency is of increasing importance to contemporary theology Furthermore his mode of cultural analysis which he himself describes as mystical provides fruitful possibilities for theological reasoning in the post idealist world he describes James Walters provides the context of Baudrillard's writing and identifies key influences He then sets out his core ideas drawing in theological responses and relating them to theological concerns Finally he highlights some areas of his work of particular theological interest The Age of Distraction Robert Hassan, 2011-11-30 Connections between time technology and the processes of reading and writing make clear the links between experiences of what appear to be quite different phenomena Reading and writing have functioned together in a particular way to build the world as we have known it for three thousand years These interacting processes have now been transformed at their core and are building a different world one where certainties of the previous era are disappearing and being displaced by what the author sees as a chronic and pervasive mode of cognitive distraction Robert Hassan offers a perspective permeated by a sense of history beginning with the invention of writing and the development of the skill of reading Together with technological developments these provide a unique view of the trajectory of modernity into late modernity and illustrate how the arc of progress has transformed New modes of time technology and reading and writing are helping create a faster world where we know less about more and forget what we know evermore quickly What is the time of a thought Is it possible to measure thinking Can we consider knowledge or information or reading and writing as having temporal rhythms These are questions Hassan tries to answer So unfamiliar are we to thinking in such terms that they sound impossible To a significant degree time thinking and many forms of knowledge are the fruits of subjective experience We connect experiences at superficial levels where people have different experiences that may be objectively the same but our interpretations will always diverge in respect of the reality we confront This intersection of philosophy and communication takes the reader into new realms of analysis Collage in Twenty-First-Century Literature in English Wojciech Drag,2019-11-12 Collage in Twenty First Century Literature in English Art of Crisis considers the phenomenon of the continued relevance of collage a form established over a hundred years ago to contemporary literature It argues that collage is a perfect artistic vehicle to represent the crisis ridden reality of the twenty first century Being a mixture of fragmentary incompatible voices collage embodies the chaos of the media dominated world Examining the artistic sociopolitical and personal crises addressed in contemporary collage literature the book argues that the 21st Century has brought a revival of collage like novels and essays Bending Genre Margot Singer,Nicole Walker,2022-12-15 Ever since the term creative nonfiction first came into widespread use memoirists and journalists essayists and fiction writers have faced off over where the border between fact and fiction lies An early and influential book on questions of form in creative nonfiction Bending Genre asks not where the boundaries between the genres should be drawn but what happens when you push the line The expanded second edition doubles the first edition with 23 new essays that broaden the exploration of hybridity structure unconventionality and resistance in creative nonfiction pushing the conversation forward in diverse and exciting ways Written for writers and students of creative writing this collection brings together perspectives from leading writers of creative nonfiction including Michael Martone Brenda Miller Ander Monson David Shields Kazim Ali and in the new edition Catina Bacote Ira Sukrungruang Ingrid Horrocks Elena Passarello and Aviya Kushner Each writer s innovative essay probes our notions of genre and investigates how creative nonfiction is shaped modeling the forms of writing being discussed Like creative nonfiction itself Bending Genre is an exciting hybrid that breaks new ground Features in the second edition Updated introduction to the new edition Expanded sections on Hybrids Structures and Unconventions A new section on Resistances 50 essays in all Contemporary Literature and the End of the Novel P.

Vermeulen,2015-01-06 This book explores the paradoxical productivity of the idea of the end of the novel in contemporary fiction It shows how this idea allows some of our most significant twenty first century writers to re imagine the ethics and politics of literature and to figure intractable forms of life and affect New York ,2010 The Very Last Interview David Shields,2022-04-12 In the spirit of his highly acclaimed and influential book Reality Hunger David Shields has composed a mordantly funny relentlessly self questioning self portrait based on questions that interviewers have asked him over forty years David Shields decided to gather every interview he s ever given going back nearly forty years If it was on the radio or TV or a podcast he transcribed it He wasn t sure what he was looking for but he knew he wasn t interested in any of his own answers The questions interested him approximately 2 700 which he condensed and collated to form twenty two chapters focused on such subjects as Process Childhood Failure Capitalism Suicide and Comedy Then according to Shields the real work began rewriting and editing and remixing the questions and finding a through line The result is a lacerating self demolition in which the author in this case a late middle aged white man is strangely thrillingly absent As Chuck Klosterman says The Very Last Interview is David Shields doing what he has done dazzlingly for the past twenty five years interrogating his own intellectual experience by changing the meaning of what seems both obviously straightforward and obviously wrong Shields s new book is a sequel of sorts to his seminal Reality Hunger A Manifesto which Literary Hub recently named one of the most important books of the last decade According to Kenneth Goldsmith Just when you think Shields couldn t rethink and reinvent literature any further he does it again The Very Last Interview confirms Shields as the most dangerously important American writer since Burroughs The Texas Review ,2009 The Believer ,2006 The Contemporary Review ,2011 Newsweek ,2010 Biblionews and Australian Notes & Queries ,2012 Other People David Shields,2017-02-21 An intellectually thrilling and emotionally wrenching investigation of otherness the need for one person to understand another person completely the impossibility of any such absolute knowing and the erotics of this separation Can one person know another person How do we live through other people Is it possible to fill the gap between people If not can art fill that gap Grappling with these questions David Shields gives us a book that is something of a revelation seventy plus essays written over the last thirty five years reconceived and recombined to form neither a miscellany nor a memoir but a sustained meditation on otherness The book is divided into five sections Men Women Athletes Performers Alter Egos Whether he is writing about sexual desire or information sickness George W Bush or Kurt Cobain women s eyeglasses or Greek tragedy Howard Cosell or Bill Murray the comedy of high school journalism or the agony of first love Shields s sustained piercing focus is on the multiplicity of perspectives informing any situation on the irreducible log jam of human information and on the possibilities and impossibilities for human connection The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross,Katharine Sergeant Angell White,2010-02 The Best American Nonrequired Reading 2007 Dave Eggers,Sufjan Stevens,2007 Presents selections of mainstream and alternative American literature including both fiction and nonfiction that
