THE MOST UNSUCCESSFUL PET RESCUE

Mrs Sarah Greenfield was worried because she hadn't seen her pet cat, Percy, for nearly two days. She told her neighbour, Frank Armstrong about it. Frank said he knew where Percy was and took her to a tall tree in the street. He pointed up at a branch near the top of the tree where Percy was sitting. Mrs Greenfield called out to her cat but it did not move. Then she asked Frank Armstrong what she should do. He suggested that she should telephone the fire brigade and ask them to help.

Mrs Greenfield went back to her house and phoned the local fire station. She told them about the cat and asked them to come and save the cat. Twenty minutes later, a big red fire engine parked outside Mrs Greenfield's house. Mrs Greenfield showed the fire officer where Percy was sitting in the tree. The fire officer asked Mrs Greenfield what the cat liked eating. She told him that Percy's favourite food was sardines. The fire officer said it would be difficult to catch the cat because it would be very frightened and asked her if she had got any sardines.

Mrs Greenfield opened a tin of sardines and gave it to the fire officer. The fire officer extended the tall ladders on the fire engine and climbed up to the cat. He held out the open tin of sardines and called to the cat. Percy was very hungry and he could smell the sardines. He scrambled towards the fire officer who caught him easily. From the top of the ladder, the fire officer called to Mrs Greenfield and told her he had caught the cat.

Mrs Greenfield was very happy and thanked the fire officer as he was climbing down the ladder. After the fire officer had handed the cat to Mrs Greenfield, she put it on the ground with the tin of sardines. Mrs Greenfield thanked the fire officer again and invited him to have a cup of tea and a slice of cake at her house. The fire officer accepted the invitation and they walked to her house.

Twenty minutes later, after two cups of tea and three slices of cake, the fire officer got into the big red fire engine and started the engine to drive away. Unfortunately, as he was reversing the fire engine, he ran over the cat and killed it.

More than (Just) Words Magdalena Szczyrbak, 2025-06-02 This edited collection illuminates the mechanisms involved in courtroom reality construction and the ways in which trial narratives are created and legal facts established It covers a wide range of jurisdictions and legal procedures spanning five continents In addition to explaining how courtroom actors utilise words to craft their narratives within institutional constraints it draws attention to the effect the gestural visual and material resources have on the discursive shaping of the judicial process The book highlights the intersection of legal and non legal perspectives in judicial and related settings those of judges prosecutors attorneys complainants lay witnesses forensic experts witness intermediaries and jurors Going beyond just words the volume elucidates the processes of meaning making and the discourse practices which underlie asymmetrical interaction in judicial settings Informed by diverse theoretical frameworks the book will appeal to legal linguists and discourse analysts studying institutional communication as well as legal practitioners engaged in trial practice

Translation of Cultures Petra Wittke-Rüdiger, Konrad Gross, 2009 The contributors to this collection approach the subject of the translation of cultures from various angles Translation refers to the rendering of texts from one language into another and the shift between languages under precolonial retelling transcreation colonial domestication and postcolonial multilingual trafficking conditions

News Talk Colleen Cotter, 2010-02-11 Written by a former news reporter and editor News Talk gives us an insider's view of the media showing how journalists select and construct their news stories Colleen Cotter goes behind the scenes revealing how language is chosen and shaped by news staff into the stories we read and hear Tracing news stories from start to finish she shows how the actions of journalists and editors and the limitations of news writing formulas may distort a story that was prepared with the most determined effort to be fair and accurate Using insights from both linguistics and journalism News Talk is a remarkable picture of a hidden world and its working practices on both sides of the Atlantic It will interest those involved in language study media and communication studies and those who want to understand how media shape our language and our view of the world

House documents, 1892 News Discourse Monika Bednarek, Helen Caple, 2018-10-19 Now reissued and retypeset this canonical book explores the role of language and images in newspaper radio online and television news The authors introduce useful frameworks for analysing language image and the interaction between the two and illustrate these with authentic news stories from around the English speaking world ranging from the Oktoberfest to environmental disasters to the killing of Osama bin Laden This analysis persuasively illustrates how events are retold in the news and made newsworthy through both language and image This clearly written and accessible introduction to news discourse is essential reading for students lecturers and researchers in linguistics media and journalism studies and semiotics Report of the Department of Education for the Year Ended on the ..., 1920 Analyzing Narrative Anna De Fina, Alexandra

Georgakopoulou, 2011-11-24 The socially minded linguistic study of storytelling in everyday life has been rapidly expanding This book provides a critical engagement with this dynamic field of narrative studies addressing long standing questions such as definitions of narrative and views of narrative structure but also more recent preoccupations such as narrative discourse and identities narrative language power and ideologies It also offers an overview of a wide range of methodologies analytical modes and perspectives on narrative from conversation analysis to critical discourse analysis to linguistic anthropology and ethnography of communication The discussion engages with studies of narrative in multiple situational and cultural settings from informal intimate to institutional It also demonstrates how recent trends in narrative analysis such as small stories research positioning analysis and sociocultural orientations have contributed to a new paradigm that approaches narratives not simply as texts but rather as complex communicative practices intimately linked with the production of social life

Longman Language Activator Della Summers, 1993 Presents linguistic as well as lexical information Through the Distorted Lens Fiona C. Hum, 2025-11-26 This monograph analyses controversial trial outcomes both civil and criminal through a post structural feminist lens of narrative creation It considers how narratives are constructed in trials and how the admission or exclusion of evidence can lead to the formation of distorted narratives that produce flawed outcomes The book discusses contemporary evidential challenges surrounding the societal and legal framing of truth within the Anglo American trial process It applies a post structural feminist approach to examine how facts and rules are interpreted through the construction of legal stories Chapters are organised to address key themes in high profile cases from around the globe These include the cases of George Cardinal Pell Johnny Depp and Amber Heard Lawyer X Brittany Higgins and Kathleen Folbigg This book departs from previous publications such as those with a traditional feminist perspective in that it presents both sides of the distorted lens where a defendant is written into a story as both guilty and innocent Its focus on cognitive and narrative processes provides insight into the role of narratives and evidence construction in the trial process and how such processes are used by legal advocates This book would be of interest to scholars of legal psychology criminology and socio legal studies It will also interest scholars and students of Evidence law especially those studying miscarriages of justice
