Research Methods in Sociolinguistics: A Practical Guide

Edited by Janet Holmes and Kirk Hazen

"A remarkably comprehensive and useful compendium of current methods in the field, ranging from the conception and establishment of a research project to the collection, processing, and presentation of data. A forward-looking, benchmark collection founded solidly in the traditions of the field!" - Walt Wolfram, North Carolina State University

This single-volume guide equips students of sociolinguistics with a full set of methodological tools including data collection and analysis techniques, explained in clear and accessible terms by leading experts. It features project suggestions, troubleshooting tips, and data assessment across diverse languages.

- Explores an array of anthropological and scientific methods that cover the full spectrum of contemporary sociolinguistics, from the study of style and discourse analysis to the study of phonetics

- Details the types of data available, and explains collection methods ranging from sociolinguistic interviews to linguistic landscapes

- Provides comprehensive coverage of data analysis, subdivided into segments on linguistic and socio-cultural techniques, and linked to numerous languages

- Includes useful summaries, seasoned advice and troubleshooting tips, ideas for research projects, and a full directory of supplementary reading

"This volume is like having the wisdom of Sociolinguistics at your fingertips. Whether you want to go to the field or the library, analyze words or interactions, study languages, dialects or sociolects, chart, map or quantify, this is the go-to book for the 21st century." - Sali A. Tagliamonte, University of Toronto

Janet Holmes holds a personal Chair in Linguistics at Victoria University of Wellington, New Zealand.

Kirk Hazen is Professor of Linguistics and director of the West Virginia Dialect Project at West Virginia University.
