Kaunda, 2020-06-22 This book examines the complex and multifaceted nature of African Pentecostal engagements with genders and sexualities In the last three decades African Pentecostalism has emerged as one the most visible and profound aspects of religious change on the continent and is a social force that straddles cultural economic and political spheres Its conventional and selective literal interpretations of the Bible with respect to gender and sexualities are increasingly perceived as exhibiting a strong influence on many aspects of social and public institutions and their moral orientations This collection features articles which examine sexualities and genders in African Pentecostalism using interdisciplinary methodological and theoretical approaches grounded within traditional African thought systems with the goal of enabling a broader understanding of Pentecostalism and sexualities in Africa African Traditions Meeting Islam

Lawrence Odhiambo Oseje, 2018-12-31 In many communities across the world traditional beliefs and practices are passed down generations and are a feature of day to day life despite the influence of outside sources Focusing on Luo Muslims in Kenya Dr Lawrence Oseje looks at the interaction of Islam and traditional Luo practices especially those around death and burial Dr Oseje s research with Luo Muslims in Kendu Bay investigates the impact of the traditional Luo conceptualization of death with their current views and provides new understanding of fundamental issues that affect the lives of ordinary Muslims From his observation of this community Oseje encourages a celebration of traditions and customs showing that an appreciation of traditions and beliefs can help develop ministry to local communities Dr Oseje s findings result in a deepened understanding of cultures how they develop from a blend of influences and provides anthropological and missiological guidelines for cross cultural ministry particularly in times of bereavement The Conversion of Igbo Christians to Islam

Chinyere Felicia Priest, 2020-04-30 Often considered a Christian heartland in Nigeria Igboland has recently seen a dramatic increase in Igbo Christians converting to Islam Yet despite this rapid change there has been minimal research into the growth of Islam in the area and the implications this has for Christianity in the region Addressing this need Dr Chinyere Felicia Priest provides a detailed exploration of Igbo converts reasons for conversion through skilful analysis of in depth ethnographic interviews with thirty converts considering their social religious and familial backgrounds This unique study sheds much needed light on the role of intellectual factors in the conversion experiences of many newly Muslim Igbos and challenges previous ideas of monetary and social influences as primary motivations for conversion As a result of her examination of these conversion experiences Dr Priest calls for serious intellectual engagement of biblical doctrine within the Igbo church and highlights the need for ministers and missiologists to better disciple and equip Christians to adequately engage with Muslim objections to the gospel and give a reasoned defence of their faith The vulnerability of many Igbo Christians will continue to result in converts to Islam unless the church heeds the lessons learned from this research and
