Languages in Africa Elizabeth C. Zsiga,One Tlale Boyer,Ruth Kramer,2015-03-03 People in many African communities live within a series of concentric circles when it comes to language In a small group a speaker uses an often unwritten and endangered mother tongue that is rarely used in school A national indigenous language written widespread sometimes used in school surrounds it An international language like French or English a vestige of colonialism carries prestige is used in higher education and promises mobility and yet it will not be well known by its users The essays in Languages in Africa explore the layers of African multilingualism as they affect language policy and education Through case studies ranging across the continent the contributors consider multilingualism in the classroom as well as in domains ranging from music and film to politics and figurative language The contributors report on the widespread devaluing and even death of indigenous languages They also investigate how poor teacher training leads to language related failures in education At the same time they demonstrate that education in a mother tongue can work linguists can use their expertise to provoke changes in language policies and linguistic creativity thrives in these multilingual communities African Oral Narratives, Proverbs, Riddles, Poetry, and Song Harold Scheub,1977 The Oral Tradition of the Baganda of Uganda Immaculate N. Kizza,2010-03-16 The Baganda people of Uganda enjoy an extraordinarily rich oral tradition which serves as a window into their culture history and experiences as a people This comprehensive multigenre work is both a study of the Baganda people s oral literature framed within the broader contexts of the African oral tradition genre modern African literature and global literary studies and a collection of representative stories Cultural explanations throughout the text explore the living culture of this unique East African nation Particular attention is paid to the history of Uganda thus placing the oral tradition within its proper context An appendix offers sample Luganda songs Lorenzo Dow Turner Margaret Wade-Lewis,2022-05-11 The first biography of the acclaimed African American linguist and author of Africanisms in the Gullah Dialect In this first book length biography of the pioneering African American linguist and celebrated father of Gullah studies Margaret Wade Lewis examines the life of Lorenzo Dow Turner A scholar whose work dramatically influenced the world of academia but whose personal story until now has remained an enigma Turner 1890 1972 emerges from behind the shadow of his germinal 1949 study Africanisms in the Gullah Dialect as a man devoted to family social responsibility and intellectual contribution Beginning with Turner s upbringing in North Carolina and Washington D C Wade Lewis describes the high expectations set by his family and his distinguished career as a professor of English linguistics and African studies The story of Turner s studies in the Gullah islands his research in Brazil his fieldwork in Nigeria and his teaching and research on Sierra Leone Krio for the Peace Corps add to his stature as a cultural pioneer and icon Drawing on Turner s archived private and published papers and on extensive interviews with his widow and others Wade Lewis examines the scholar s struggle to secure funding for his research his relations with Hans Kurath and the Linguistic Atlas Project his capacity for establishing relationships with Gullah speakers and his success in making Sea Island Creole a legitimate province of analysis Here Wade Lewis answers the question of how a soft spoken professor could so profoundly influence the development of linguistics in the United States and the work of scholars especially in Gullah and creole studies who would follow him Turner s widow Lois Turner Williams provides an introductory note and linguist Irma Aloyce Cunningham provides the foreword Handbook of Quality of Life in African Societies Irma Eloff,2019-08-09 This handbook reflects on quality of life in societies on the continent of Africa It provides a widely interdisciplinary text with insights on quality of life from a variety of scientific perspectives The handbook is structured into sections covering themes of social context culture
