Alleviation Based on the Perceptions of the Key Players in the Market Kausar Abbas,2014 This study raises the issues and challenges concerning the recognition of Islamic microfinance by the Islamic banks of Pakistan This is based on perceptions of the key players in the market The study gathered relevant information through conducting field surveys by employing convenience sampling technique the most common of all sampling techniques Two questionnaires were designed for the surveys One questionnaire was administered to survey 270 micro entrepreneurs and petty traders in three major cities of Pakistan including Rawalpindi Lahore and Peshawar Another survey deals with the perceptions of Islamic bankers and Shariah scholars 100 relevant respondents from middle and top managements related to Islamic banks were surveyed from five full fledged Islamic banks of Pakistan Three of the sample banks were selected from Islamabad and two banks from Lahore The findings of the study are decomposed into two parts Part 1 reveals the micro entrepreneurs and petty traders perspective while part II focuses on the perspectives of Islamic bankers regulators and Shariah scholars In general the results indicate that presently Islamic banking is not addressing the financing needs particularly of those micro entrepreneurs who generally have preference for Shariah compliant finance Islamic microfinance is constrained by lack of knowledge experience and professionalism of supporting staff Therefore the majority of the Islamic bankers are not satisfied with the present structure for the implementation of Islamic microfinance However the Islamic bankers agreed that Islamic banks should offer Islamic microfinance and treat it separately from other products Generally both top and middle management agreed that Murabahah Dimishing musharakah and Ijarah are most applicable models for Islamic microfinance schemes to the potential micro entrepreneurs On the other hand micro entrepreneurs and petty traders view Islamic microfinance as a preferred choice over traditional interest based loans Although Islamic microfinance is a new concept majority of respondents have basic understanding of this concept based on their Islamic knowledge and associations with social network This study also examined the applicability of Theory of Reasoned Action TRA particularly in the context of Islamic microfinance among micro entrepreneurs and petty traders of Pakistan However micro entrepreneurs and petty traders expressed their dissatisfaction to the management of the Islamic banks Moreover the most consistent answer with major concerns from the respondents is that Islamic banks are same as conventional banks in dealings with clients Therefore the findings could provide insights to Islamic banks in diversifying their products by offering Islamic microfinance to the low income people but with proper guidelines and policies

The Routledge Handbook of Islamic Economics and Finance Hussain Mohi-ud-Din Qadri,M. Ishaq Bhatti,Mohd Azmi Omar,2025-08-06 Islamic finance is one of the fastest growing sectors of the finance industry due to a number of factors including the technology boom fintech blockchain and higher oil and commodity prices but also in particular its demand by 1.5 billion Muslims around the globe It enjoys sustainably higher positive returns compared to its conventional finance counterparts specifically during financial crises Moreover it plays a major role in implementing the UN's Sustainable Development Goals due to its non traditional source of long term fund financing that advances social environmental and economic goals The Routledge Handbook of Islamic Economics and Finance offers a detailed introduction to the current scholarship in this ever expanding and emerging field The book is divided into three parts covering Islamic business Islamic economics and Islamic finance respectively Each chapter provides a balanced overview of current knowledge identifying issues and discussing the relevant debates The book seeks to explore the current developments and trends in Islamic economics Islamic banking and Islamic capital markets It also covers the areas of Islamic social finance impact investment and Islamic microfinance SMEs poverty alleviation and financial inclusion Additionally it launches the debate on the emergence progress challenges and future potential of Islamic fintech and the Islamic digital economy Furthermore it sheds light on subjects such as the marketing of Islamic financial services and products the circular economy and the blue economy from an Islamic financial perspective As well as surveying the current state of the art the authors also reflect on where the research agenda is likely to advance in the future making this the definitive resource for scholars and researchers in this area

Muhamed Zulkhibri,Abdul Ghafar Ismail,2017-11-30 This book explores the relationships between financial inclusion poverty and inclusive development from Islamic perspectives Financial inclusion has become an important global agenda and priority for policymakers and regulators in many Muslim countries for sustainable long term economic growth It has also become an integral part of many development institutions and multilateral development banks in efforts to promote inclusive growth Many studies in economic development and poverty reduction suggest that financial inclusion matters Financial inclusion within the broader context of inclusive development is viewed as an important means to tackle poverty and inequality and to address the sustainable development goals SDGs This book contributes to the literature on these topics and will be of interest to researchers and academics interested in Islamic finance and financial inclusion COVID-19 and Islamic Social

Finance M. Kabir Hassan,Aishath Muneeza,Adel M. Sarea,2021-03-07 It is said that the COVID 19 pandemic has turned back the poverty clock As such there is a need to have social mechanisms put in place to provide relief to those who are affected in this regard Islamic social finance consists of tools and institutions that could be used to alleviate poverty This book explores the impact of COVID 19 on Islamic finance to better understand the effectiveness of Islamic social finance in helping those who have been affected by poverty overnight due to the halt in all major economic activities in the context of the pandemic Since the struggle against poverty in each country will be different the book attempts to shed light on the experiences of different countries by presenting successful models of Islamic social finance The book first looks at poverty and COVID 19 before delving into the role of Islamic social financial institutions and how they have risen against COVID 19 The book concludes by examining the impact of COVID 19 on Islamic microfinance This book is the first of its kind on the subject of COVID 19 and it intends to bridge the gap in the literature Islamic Microfinance and Poverty Alleviation at Grassroots in South-Western Nigeria Oyesanya O. Sodiq,2014 The plethora of poverty in many parts of the Third World Less Developed Countries LDCs despite quite spectacular economic growth has spawned interests in the scourge in academic and policy making circles In the recent years international consensus has emerged to focus development goals on poverty alleviation Governments have agreed to formulate and implement anti poverty plans that would set time bound goals and targets for the substantial reduction of poverty Hence programmes and institutions that provide credit and savings facilities have been promoted by governments international development organizations local non governmental organizations and grassroots bodies as an indispensable strategy for alleviating poverty in Less Developed Countries LDCs and increasingly also within poor communities of Industrially Advanced Countries IACs Microfinance initiative therefore is widely acclaimed as a new innovative approach to alleviate poverty Through many a financial and social intermediation service the poor who were denied access to mainstream banking services are now able to benefit from various financial products and services Today there are more than 7000 micro lending institutions providing loans to more than 25 million poor individuals across the world their vast majority being women Thus the concern over credit provision and finance accessibility to the poor and the vulnerable is inevitably relative to Islamic financial intermediaries that espouse greater socio economic responsibilities social justice equitable distribution of income and wealth and economic development The statistical indices however show that the existing microfinance institutions in Nigeria serve less than one million people out of forty million being the potential number that needs the services And paradoxically the operators of these institutions charge interest rate as high as up to 36% 42% for lending This further aggravates the ubiquitous inequalities in the distribution of wealth and income Also the aggregate micro credit facility in Nigeria account for about 0 2% of the GDP and is less than 1% of total credit in the economy Nigeria being a country with a Muslim majority represents a potential for Islamic Microfinance especially that most Muslims reject the conventional interest based micro financing Therefore the paper is aimed at a critical analysis of poverty alleviation strategies of Al Hayat Relief Foundation Islamic Economic Studies ,2015 Regulation and Supervision of Islamic Microfinance Abdul Ghafar Ismail,Abd Elrahman Elzahi Saaed Ali,2018 Africa Redemption. From Poverty Eradication to Wealth Creation Ismail Badroen,Jonathan Makuwira,Albert T. Akume,Bethold Kaurivi,Claudios Nhokwara,2022-08-03 Document from the year 2022 in the subject Politics Topic Development Politics grade A University of Namibia Rundu Campus language English abstract Research has shown that poverty is a man made phenomenon Historical interventions to redress its rampant manifestation especially in Sub Saharan Africa very much remain a serial flaw of misplacements in the hands of wrong architects and premised on the unholy misconception that aid will lead to both poverty alleviation and economic development of Africa Looking at the historical landscape of the poverty debate in Sub Saharan Africa one cannot help but notice the silence or scarce mention of entrepreneurship as the engine for growth in the alleviation of extreme poverty Therefore the Africa Redemption International Conference ARIC was conceived from the premise of a long and hard look at the serial and regrettable failures of the three salient beaten trek interventions of Structural Adjustment Programs SAPS Poverty Reduction Strategies PRS and the Millennium Development Goals MDGs Earlier interventions focused more on economic growth and paid little attention to social development With the advent of MDGs attention somewhat shifted towards resulting in poverty being reduced by more than half between 1990 and 2015 Critical success factors including infrastructure development domestic resource mobilization and institutional capacity building among others have largely been overlooked by most of these instruments The architecture of poverty reduction strategies has for far too long been the work of foreign agents with little if any of Africans themselves It is generally on this very basis that the ARIC Conference was convened with the objectives to a Bring academics practitioners and policy makers into one unique place to deliberate on issues that keep Africa behind any other parts of the world in emerging out of poverty b Allow policymakers to chart a way forward and share that with the broader body of light minded Africans who want to seriously take the country of scourges of poverty c Allow academics to analyze articulate and recommend what they perceive Africa needs to do in order to overcome its stagnation that has earned its Mantra of a Dark Continent d Invite development activist in the world and Africa in particular to share their isolated experiences with a broader community of stakeholders willing to amplify their good practice efforts to other parts of Africa where they are needed most e Showcase domestic innovators of all sorts
