Running Family Michael Ondaatje:

Running in the Family Michael Ondaatje, 2011-08-09 In Michael Ondaatje's beloved family memoir fact and fiction blur to create a dazzlingly original portrait of a lost time and place Ondaatje left Ceylon now Sri Lanka at the age of eleven Almost twenty five years later he returned to sort out the recollected fragments of experience legend and family scandal and to reconstruct the carefree doomed life his parents and grandparents had led in a place where couples danced the tango in the moonlight where drink gambling and romance were the main occupations of the upper class Rich with eccentric characters and captivating stories and set against the exotic landscape of a colonial empire in decline Running in the Family is Ondaatje's unforgettable journey through memory and imagination to reclaim his past

Across the Lines Wolfgang Kloos, 1998 This third volume of ASNEL Papers covers a wide range of theoretical and thematic approaches to the subject of intertextuality Intertextual relations between oral and written versions of literature text and performance as well as problems emerging from media transitions regionally instructed forms of intertextuality and the works of individual authors are equally dealt with Intertextuality as both a creative and a critical practice frequently exposes the essential arbitrariness of literary and cultural manifestations that have become canonized The transformation and transfer of meanings which accompanies any crossing between texts rests not least on the nature of the artistic corpus embodied in the general framework of historically and socially determined cultural traditions Traditions however result from selective forms of perception they are as much inventions as they are based on exclusion Intertextuality leads to a constant reinforcement of tradition while at the same time intertextual relations between the new literatures and other English language literatures are all too obvious Despite the inevitable impact of tradition the new literatures tend to employ a dynamic reading of culture which fosters social process and transition thus promoting transcultural rather than intercultural modes of communication Writing and reading across borders becomes a dialogue which reveals both differences and similarities More than a decolonizing form of deconstruction intertextuality is a strategy for communicating meaning across cultural boundaries

Michael Ondaatje Douglas Barbour,1993 Today as his richly metaphorical texts enjoy international renown Ondaatje s fame is especially fascinating for he has neither followed trends nor played to any crowd instead fulfilling his wish to start each new book with a new vocabulary Unlike fellow writers Robert Kroetsch and George Bowering Ondaatje dislikes discussing theory it takes an appreciation as sharp and probing as Douglas Barbour s to enlighten us to the thoughts intentions and influences that have shaped Ondaatje s work his consistent movement into new territory and his masterful traversal through the modes of late modernism postmodernism and postcolonialism Barbour offers luminous readings of each of Ondaatje s books up to The English Patient 1992 a novel of international scope that is as much about the power of
