Introduction to Halal Foods

As the world's most religiously diverse city, Toronto is visited by people from many countries, backgrounds and traditions. This guide provides information about foods acceptable to the Muslim community.

Muslims around the world practice the religion of Islam. The practice of Islam includes observing dietary laws which come from Islamic teachings. Islamic dietary laws define foods that are Halal, meaning lawful or permitted. Muslims avoid food and beverages that are Haram, meaning not permitted.

Increased awareness of culturally acceptable foods improves our ability to meet the needs of a diverse society. It is important to take into consideration each individual's perspective on health, cultural and religious practices.

The information provided in this guide will assist you when planning and serving meals, snacks or refreshments for the Muslim community.

Tips for Planning Meals/Snacks/Refreshments

1. Food traditions and dietary habits are affected by religion and culture. Ask the participants or group leader if anyone has special dietary needs.
2. Display the Halal certification symbol. Food ingredients label as Halal may vary amongst
3. Provide a vegetarian option using legumes as an alternative to meat dishes.
4. Read food labels carefully and regularly when purchasing food, as ingredients may change without notice.
