Autonomy In Foreign Language Learning And Teaching A:

Autonomy and Foreign Language Learning Henri Holec,1981 Autonomy, Agency and Identity in Foreign Language Learning and Teaching Jing Huang,2013 This book offers readers a basic grounding in autonomy and related concepts of agency and identity in foreign language education The ethnographic study explores how autonomy develops within the long term process of EFL and TEFL learning in a Chinese social and institutional context Through examining the general characteristics and patterns within the long term development of autonomy among the students the enquiry puts under close scrutiny a number of fundamental issues in autonomy research and practice such as reactive autonomy in relation to proactive autonomy personal autonomy in relation to learner autonomy other control in relation to self control in the multi control model of autonomy and also issues of autonomy in the transition from foreign language learning to foreign language teaching The study presents the more describable concepts of identity and agency to investigate the development of autonomy in foreign language learning and teaching and explores their complex interrelationships The book finally highlights major contributions and limitations of the investigation and provides implications and suggestions for theory pedagogy and research

Autonomy in Second Language Learning: Managing the Resources Mirosław Pawlak,Anna Mystkowska-Wiertelak,Jakub Bielak,2016-12-28 The present volume brings together papers devoted to the role of learner and teacher autonomy in the process of second and foreign language learning which have been contributed by scholars from Poland and abroad The book has been divided into three parts in accordance with the topics that the individual contributions touch upon The first part includes papers dealing with different ways in which learner autonomy can be fostered and evaluated The papers contained in Part Two are connected with the role of language learning strategies in the development of learner independence Finally Chapter Three focuses on developing teacher autonomy which in the opinion of many specialists is indispensable if learner autonomy is to be promoted Thanks to its wide ranging focus this edited collection will be of interest not only to second language learning specialists interested in the role of learner autonomy but also to undergraduate graduate and postgraduate students working on their BA MA and PhD theses as well as practitioners wishing to promote learner independence in their classrooms

Autonomy and Foreign Language Learning in a Virtual Learning Environment Miranda Hamilton,2013-04-11 Digitalised learning with its promise of autonomy enhanced learner choice independence and freedom is an intuitive and appealing construct but closer examination reveals it to be a rather simplistic proposition raising the following questions What do we mean by autonomy What are we implying about the role of the teacher the classroom and interaction between learners What do we understand about the impact of technology on the ecology of the learning environment This book describes the use of a Virtual Learning Environment VLE by a group of advanced English language learners in Mexico comparing what students thought and what they did in response to the technology The theoretical aim of the book is to work towards the construction of a theory of the development of autonomy and virtual learning in an EFL context Enhanced understanding about the relationship between autonomy and technology has the potential to inform academics software designers materials writers teacher educators and teachers and to help learners in their quest to acquire a foreign language

VIEIRA RAYA (FLAVIA.), Flavia Vieira, 2020-07-10 Autonomy in Language Education offers a holistic overview of and novel contribution to a complex and multifaceted yet under studied field of inquiry that is transforming language pedagogy It offers nineteen original chapters that critically analyze the impact of Henri Holec's seminal 1979 book Autonomy in Foreign Language Learning unpack theoretical empirical conceptual methodological ethical and political developments over the last forty years from many perspectives explore practical implications for teaching learning and teacher education and suggest future avenues and challenges for research and practice in this broad diverse essential field Autonomy, Agency and Identity in Foreign Language Learning and Teaching Jing Huang, 2017-01-27 This dissertation Autonomy Agency and Identity in Foreign Language Learning and Teaching by Jing Huang was obtained from The University of Hong Kong Pokfulam Hong Kong and is being sold pursuant to Creative Commons Attribution 3.0 Hong Kong License The content of this dissertation has not been altered in any way We have altered the formatting in order to facilitate the ease of printing and reading of the dissertation All rights not granted by the above license are retained by the author DOI 10.5353/th_b4175798 Subjects Learner autonomy English language Study and teaching Higher China English language Study and teaching Higher Chinese speakers English teachers Training of China The Language Portfolio and Its Contribution to Learner Autonomy and Intrinsic Motivation in the EFL Nils Hübinger, 2013-04-26 Seminar paper from the year 2011 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Pedagogy Literature Studies grade 14 Justus Liebig University Giessen Anglistik course Seminar Diagnostic Competence language English abstract The approach to English foreign language acquisition in German schools has significantly changed in the last decade Today students no longer start to learn English in grade five but begin with the very basics in primary school In most states English as a foreign language is introduced in grade three some states have gone even further and start teaching English in the first grade e.g. North Rhine Westphalia Besides these changes a major shift from a teacher to a learner centered classroom took place Consequently the individual learner and his or her language learning process have become more important in the English foreign language EFL classroom than before New methodology such as strategic learning reflection and self evaluation have moved to the center of attention in order to enhance students language learning efficiency In order to approach these new competences in an appropriate way for children the language portfolio was developed and introduced to foreign language learners By now there are a number of different portfolio such as the European Language Portfolio for language learners in secondary schools and adults or Mein Sprachenportfolio which is being used in primary schools in the state of Hesse Those new methods of language learning are meant to offer students the chance to monitor their own language learning process and eventually allow them to see their own learning progress over the years One of the major goals of the portfolio is to rise learners motivation and interest in language learning Research over many years has shown that motivation plays a great role when it comes to foreign language learning and learning in general Therefore it is certain that motivation has significant influence on a person s success or failure in language learning The portfolio might be the key to the problem of creating fostering and maintaining language learners motivation over a period of time that exceeds childhood and adolescence

Left to My Own Devices: Learner Autonomy and Mobile-Assisted Language Learning Javier Díaz-Vera,2012-01-04 This book is the result of five years of intensive dedication to teaching innovation and curriculum development and offers a series of studies exploring how mobile technologies in particular and mobile learning in general may be used for second language teaching and learning in a wide variety of environments Although a strong emphasis is laid on issues to do with autonomy and independence in second language acquisition the volume also examines the connections and interrelations of mobile learning and second language teaching and learning process on the whole as well as the process of adoption of new mobile technologies as teaching tools in various communities across the globe The volume is targeted at a broad spectrum of readers including academics in the field of e learning online learning and ICT based learning with an interest in exploring the possibilities of mobile assisted learning and the new developments of ICT in particular portable devices for the foreign language classroom It is most attractive to those interested in the emerging field of mobile assisted learning in general and its potential for foreign language teaching and learning in particular
