Creating Stellar Lessons with Digital Tools Kenneth J. Luterbach,2022-05-12 Creating Stellar Lessons with Digital Tools prepares teachers in training and in service teachers to use technologies for design and development activities with middle and high school students While software open resources handheld devices and other tools hold great potential to enhance learning experiences teachers themselves must model technology use in ways that inspire students to become producers and leaders rather than consumers and followers Featuring concrete applications in social studies English mathematics and science scenarios this book provides pre service and in service teachers with seven paths to creatively integrate and innovate with computational thinking datasets maker spaces visual design media editing and other approaches Resources in Education, 1998 Social Studies for Secondary Schools Alan J. Singer,2008-10-26 This popular text advocates an inquiry and activity based view of social studies teaching that respects the points of view of students and teachers Based in practice and experience it offers systematic support and open honest advice for new teachers is conversational not pedantic and provides lots of examples While the structure and most of the topics remain largely the same as before this Third Edition presents new lesson ideas in every chapter especially designed to help new teachers to address learning standards to work in inclusive settings and to promote literacy and the use of technology in social studies classrooms puts a heavier focus on what is important to know and why includes new essays on the politics of social studies education responds to opponents of project or activity based social studies instruction and multicultural education with a sharpened defense of both of these approaches throughout the book Intended as a text for undergraduate and graduate pre service social studies methods courses this text is also useful for in service training programs as a reference for new social studies teachers and as a resource for experienced social studies educators who are engaged in rethinking their teaching practice A Guide to Ontario School Law Benjamin Kutsyuruba,David Burgess,Keith Walker,J. Kent Donlevy,2014-05 A Guide to Ontario School Law is a comprehensive non partisan fair reading of provincial educational statutes regulations and relevant policies that will be a first aid and reference to the lay reader Our goal is to provide an up to date accessible and user friendly guide to various legal parameters for teachers aspiring teachers trustees school administrators central office administration parents and interested community members In particular the resources and insights in this guide are aimed at helping teacher candidates to develop literacy in educational law and policy and ultimately to successfully transition from teacher education programs into teaching careers Perspectives of Black Histories in Schools LaGarrett J. King,2019-11-01 This book examines the state of k 12 Black history education exploring its foundation curriculum pedagogy policy and psychology It brings together diverse scholars to discuss what Black history is and how it should be taught highlighting the progress made and the challenges that remain Critical Perspectives on White Supremacy and Racism in Canadian Education Arlo Kempf,Heather Watts,2024-03-12 Critical Perspectives on White Supremacy and Racism in Canadian Education shows how K 12 schooling continues to produce and maintain white supremacist and colonial logics and questions the alternate future of schooling in Canada It argues that white supremacy and race in schooling are present in colonial centered approaches to teacher education formal and informal exclusion through curriculum development and persistent failed commitments to racial justice and decolonization These themes guide the organization of this collection which is further underpinned by theoretical perspectives including critical race theory anti Blackness theory abolition and anticolonial theory Contributions are drawn from classroom teachers community educators and pre service teacher educators and are powerfully informed by first hand accounts as well as stories of teachers and teacher candidates Combining theory with practice this edited volume will be important reading for advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students in social justice education multicultural education and Indigenous studies It will also be beneficial reading for antiracist and Indigenous education researchers as well as policymakers and practitioners within critical education
