The Graveyard in Literature Aoileann Ní Éigearthaigh, 2021-11-12 This volume focuses on literary and other cultural texts that use the graveyard as a liminal space within which received narratives and social values can be challenged and new and empowering perspectives on the present articulated It argues that such texts do so primarily by immersing the reader in a liminal space between life and death where traditional certainties such as time and space are suspended and new models of human interaction can thus be formulated Essays in this volume examine the use of liminality as a vehicle for social critique paying particular attention to the ways in which liminal spaces facilitate the construction of alternative perspectives

Bonnie Taylor was looking for a friend to play with and she ended up kidnapped by her neighbor Her innocence was stolen and she was violently abused She believed for many years that she fled from Mr Blacks house unharmed but she lived in deception A few months later two men kidnapped her father from their home in the middle of the night and he was shot as he escaped After her Dads shooting Bonnies family started to unravel and she reached out to God for help She believed that God rejected abandoned and betrayed her when the opposite of what she asked Him for happened She came to her own conclusion and she believed that God could not be trusted to love or take care of her After decades of trying to survive and failing miserably she begged God to show her if He was real and if He loved her He reached down and took her to Himself and she was offered the opportunity of her lifetime She found healing deliverance and restoration as she went through a year of devastation and personal loss The truth about her childhood was uncovered and His love for her was discovered If youve ever wondered if God is real or if you think you are too far gone to be reached then this challenge to believe is for you
