The English Patient:

The English Patient Anthony Minghella, 1996-11-15 During World War II a mysterious stranger is rescued from a fiery plane crash The American allies care for him and the dangerous secrets from his past come to light The English Patient Michael Ondaatje, 2010-12-22 With ravishing beauty and unsettling intelligence Michael Ondaatje's Booker Prize winning novel traces the intersection of four damaged lives in an Italian villa at the end of World War II Hana the exhausted nurse the maimed thief Caravaggio the wary sapper Kip each is haunted by the riddle of the English patient the nameless burned man who lies in an upstairs room and whose memories of passion betrayal and rescue illuminates this book like flashes of heat lightening The English Patient Michael Ondaatje, 2009-10-05 The international bestseller and winner of the 1992 Booker Prize reissued as a collector's hardback edition A Study Guide for Michael Ondaatje's "The English Patient" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2016-06-29 A Study Guide for Michael Ondaatje's The English Patient excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Novels for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Novels for Students for all of your research needs Gabriel Yared's The English Patient Heather Laing, 2004 This resource offers the most in depth examination to date of the work of composer Gabriel Yared through a uniquely interdisciplinary analysis that integrates film theory and musicology Michael Ondaatje's The English Patient John Bolland, 2002-01-11 This is an excellent guide to Michael Ondaatje's best loved novel It features a biography of the author a full length analysis of the novel a comparison of the novel to the film and a great deal more If you're studying this novel reading it for your book club or if you simply want to know more about it you'll find this guide informative and helpful This is part of a new series of guides to contemporary novels The aim of the series is to give readers accessible and informative introductions to some of the most popular most acclaimed and most influential novels of recent years from The Remains of the Day to White Teeth A team of contemporary fiction scholars from both sides of the Atlantic has been assembled to provide a thorough and readable analysis of each of the novels in question Making Sense Ralf Hertel, 2005 Fiction is fascinating All it provides us with is black letters on white pages yet while we read we do not have the impression that we are merely perceiving abstract characters Instead we see the protagonists before our inner eye and hear their voices Descriptions of sumptuous meals make our mouths water we feel physically repelled by depictions of violence or are aroused by the erotic details of sexual conquests We submerge ourselves in the fictional world that no longer stays on the paper but comes to life in our imagination Reading turns into an out of the body experience or rather an in another body experience for we perceive the portrayed world not only through the protagonist's eyes but also through his ears nose tongue and skin In other words we move through the literary text as if through a virtual reality How does literature achieve this trick How does it turn mere letters into vividly experienced worlds This study argues that techniques of sensuous writing contribute decisively to bringing the text to life in the reader's imagination. In detailed interpretations of British novels of the 1980s and 1990s by writers such as John Berger, John Banville, Salman Rushdie, Jeanette Winterson or J. M. Coetzee, it uncovers literary strategies for turning the sensuous experience into words and for conveying it to the reader, demonstrating how we make sense in and of literature. Both readers interested in the contemporary novel and in the sensuousness of the reading experience will profit from this innovative study that not only analyses the interest of contemporary authors in the senses but also pinpoints literary entry points for the sensuous force of reading.

Comparative Cultural Studies and Michael Ondaatje's Writing Steven Tötösy de Zepetnek, 2005. Annotation: It is an event in literary criticism and culture scholarship that we have new studies on the work of such an original writer as Michael Ondaatje. In this collection, some of the most perceptive scholars working in cultural and literary studies examine Ondaatje's texts: his poetry, his novels In the Skin of a Lion, The English Patient (novel and film), and Anil's Ghost.

Michael Ondaatje's The English Patient (ELL), 2009. Shared Waters Stella Borg Barthet, 2009. The present volume contains general essays on unequal African-Western academic exchange, the state and structure of postcolonial studies, representing male violence in Zimbabwe's wars, parihaka in the poetic imagination of Aotearoa (New Zealand), Middle Eastern, Nigerian, Moroccan, and diasporic Indian women's writing, community in post-Independence Maltese poetry, in English, key novels of the Portuguese colonies, the TV series The Kumars at No. 42, fictional representations of India, the North, in western Canadian writing, and a pedagogy of African Canadian literature. As well as these, there is a selection of poems from Malta by Daniel Massa, Adrian Grima, Norbert Bugeja, Immanuel Mifsud, and Maria Grech, Ganado, and essays providing close readings of works by the following authors and filmmakers: Thea Astley, George Elliott Clarke, Alan Duff, Francis Ebejer, Lorena Gale, Romesh Guneseckera, Sahar Khalaf, Anthony Minghella, Michael Ondaatje, Caryl Phillips, Edgar Allan Poe, Salman Rushdie, Ghadah al-Samm, Meera Syal, Lee Tamahori. Political Philosophy Comes to Rick's James F. Pontuso, 2005-01-01. Casablanca is a movie about love and loss, virtue and vice, good and evil, duty and treachery, courage and weakness, friendship and hate. It is a story that ends well, but only because the main characters make a heartbreaking choice. Casablanca is perhaps the most widely viewed motion picture ever made, often finishing on critics' lists second only to Citizen Kane. What accounts for its continuing popularity? What chord does it strike with audiences? What lesson does Casablanca teach Americans about themselves? What influence does popular culture have on public mores? The contributors to Political Philosophy Comes to Rick's take up these questions, finding that Casablanca raises many of the most important issues of political philosophy. Perhaps Casablanca has an enduring quality.

because it like political philosophy raises questions of human life the nature of love friendship courage honor responsibility and justice The English Patient Michael Ondaatje,2002 Michael Ondaatje s Booker Prize winning novel was first published in 1992 to incredible international acclaim Shortly afterwards it was made into a major film one that brought Ondaatje s beautiful harrowing love story to millions of people Set in the chaotic months that followed the end of the Second World War The English Patient focuses on a small band of stunned survivors as they try to come to terms with its devastating effects These four characters thrown together by chance have stories of wonder and horror to tell each other And as these stories are narrated and played out Ondaatje creates with spectacular brilliance the adventure romance and pain of life itself

The Terministic Screen David Blakesley,2007-09-28 The Terministic Screen Rhetorical Perspectives on Film examines the importance of rhetoric in the study of film and film theory Rhetorical approaches to film studies have been widely practiced but rarely discussed until now Taking on such issues as Hollywood blacklisting fascistic aesthetics and postmodern dialogics editor David Blakesley presents fifteen critical essays that examine rhetoric s role in such popular films as The Fifth Element The Last Temptation of Christ The Usual Suspects Deliverance The English Patient Pulp Fiction The Music Man Copcat Hoop Dreams and A Time to Kill Aided by sixteen illustrations these insightful essays consider films rhetorically as ways of seeing and not seeing as acts that dramatize how people use language and images to tell stories and foster identification Contributors include David Blakesley Alan Nadel Ann Chisholm Martin J Medhurst Byron Hawk Ekaterina V Haskins James Roberts Thomas W Benson Philip L Simpson Davis W Houck Caroline J S Picart Friedemann Weidauer Bruce Krajewski Harriet Malinowitz Granetta L Richardson and Kelly Ritter

Literature into Film Linda Costanzo Cahir,2014-12-24 For most people film adaptation of literature can be summed up in one sentence The movie wasn t as good as the book This volume undertakes to show the reader that not only is this evaluation not always true but sometimes it is intrinsically unfair Movies based on literary works while often billed as adaptations are more correctly termed translations A director and his actors translate the story from the written page into a visual presentation Depending on the form of the original text and the chosen method of translation certain inherent difficulties and pitfalls are associated with this change of medium So often our reception of a book based movie has more to do with our expectations and reading of the literature than with the job that the movie production did or did not do Avoiding these biases and fairly evaluating any particular literary based film takes an awareness of certain factors Written with a formalistic rather than historical approach this work presents a comprehensive guide to literature based films establishing a contextual and theoretical basis to help the reader understand the relationships between such movies and the original texts as well as the reader s own individual responses to these productions To this end it focuses on recognizing and appreciating the inherent difficulties encountered when basing a film on a literary work be it a novel novella play or short story Individual chapters deal with the specific issues and difficulties raised by each of these genres providing an overview backed up by case studies of specific film translations Films and literary works receiving this treatment include The Unbearable Lightness of Being The Manchurian Candidate 1962 Lady Windemere's Fan by Oscar Wilde and Shakespeare's Henry V Interspersed throughout the text are suggestions for activities the film student or buff can use to enhance his or her appreciation and understanding of the films Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here
