Explanation

Notice that θ angle is an inscribed angle and angle ϕ is a central angle. The central angle theorem states that the measure of a central angle is twice the measure of an inscribed angle that intercepts the same arc.

This means the measure of central angle ϕ is $2 \times$ measure of inscribed the same arc as for θ inscribed angle.

What if O is the center of the circle in the figure below. What is the value of θ ?

Explanation

Step 1: The first step following an introductory phrase containing an action must be the person or thing that would do that action.

Identify the action in the introductory phrase. Then, choose the answer in which the independent clause begins with the noun that does the action.

introduction clause

After collecting the data, the scientist predicts when and how often all species will migrate and return to their natural habitats during their journey to the coast.

The information that immediately follows the introductory phrase ("After collecting the data") must be something that performs the action. Remember the thing that performs does in the sentence, the correct answer must start the independent clause with the correct as the subject.

Therefore, the answer that best completes the sentence states that the scientist predicts when and how often all birds will migrate and return to their natural habitats during their journey to the coast.

Email and the Everyday Esther Milne, 2024-07-02. An exploration of how email is experienced, understood and materially structured as a practice spanning our everyday domestic and work lives. Despite its many obituaries, email is not dead. As a global mode of business and personal communication, email outstrips newer technologies of online interaction; it is deeply embedded in our everyday lives. And yet perhaps because the ubiquity of email has obscured its study, this is the first scholarly book devoted to email as a key historical, social and commercial site of digital communication in our everyday lives. In Email and the Everyday, Esther Milne examines how email is experienced, understood and materially structured as a practice spanning the domestic and institutional spaces of daily life. Email experiences range from the routine and banal to the surprising and shocking. Drawing on interviews and online surveys, Milne focuses on both the material and the symbolic properties of email. She maps the development of email as a technology and as an industry, considers institutional uses of email including bureaucratic intensity of workplace email and the continuing vibrancy of email groups, and examines what happens when private emails end up in public archives, discussing the Enron email dataset and Hillary Clinton's infamous private server. Finally, Milne explores the creative possibilities of email, connecting eighteenth-century epistolary novels to contemporary email novels, discussing the vernacular expression of ASCII art and mail art, and examining email works by Carl Steadman, Miranda July and others.

Madagascar Daniel Austin, Hilary Bradt, 2017-08-17. A new thoroughly updated 12th edition of Bradt's Madagascar, the leading and most comprehensive guide to this unique island nation, written by Hilary Bradt who first visited in 1976 and has returned roughly 35 times, and Daniel Austin who has visited 12 times and continues to travel there annually. Bradt's Madagascar is by far the most thorough guide to the country in English and is written and updated by established experts whose unparalleled knowledge of Madagascar combines with contributions from over 50 experts in a book which has been the most authoritative guide to the country for three decades. It covers national parks and protected areas and includes itineraries to suit all interests and budgets, plus details of around 1,000 hotels and restaurants. Madagascar is like nowhere else on earth. It is fascinating, not only zoologically and botanically, but culturally, linguistically, historically and geologically. This vast island is the fourth largest in the world and also the oldest. This is part of the reason why it has evolved into an incredible hotspot for biodiversity with a truly unique flora and fauna.

that is more than 80% endemic to the island and with new species being described virtually on a daily basis Madagascar is also the only place where you can see wild lemurs Almost a quarter of the world's 450 or so primates exist only here With Bradt's Madagascar you can visit tropical rainforest and seek out its incredible flora and fauna explore the otherworldly eroded limestone spires most famously at Tsingy de Bemaraha National Park Madagascar's most striking landscape discover the beach fringed islands around Nosy Be with their fabulous scuba diving snorkelling kayaking whale watching and fishing opportunities and make the most of a host of adventuring and sporting possibilities including surfing windsurfing kitesurfing rock climbing tree climbing caving river trips mountain biking distance running quad biking trekking and hiking Also covered are the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Ambohimanga the renowned Avenue des Baobabs one of the country's most photographed scenes and information on the best birdwatching spots Madagascar has almost 300 avian species with a high proportion of endemics including five whole endemic families
