An Introduction to the African Prose Narrative Lokangaka Losambe, 2004 This collection of essays introduces students of African literature to the heritage of the African prose narrative starting from its oral base and covering its linguistic and cultural diversity The book brings together essays on both the classics and the relatively new works in all subgenres of the African prose narrative including the traditional epic the novel the short story and the autobiography The chapters are arranged according to the respective thematic paradigms under which the discussed works fall African Novels in the Classroom Margaret Jean Hay, 2000 Many teachers of African studies have found novels to be effective assignments in courses In this guide teachers describe their favourite African novels drawn from all over the continent and share their experiences of using them in the classroom The Legacy and Limits of Vatican II in an Age of Crisis Massimo Faggioli, Edward P. Hahnenberg, Kristin M Colberg, Catherine Clifford, 2025-04-26 A renewed approach to the critical study of the event and documents of Vatican II necessary for responding to the challenges facing today's church Packed with new insights from some of today's most highly regarded voices on the Second Vatican Council The Legacy and Limits of Vatican II in an Age of Crisis enacts the living tradition of the church by proposing a richer history to be told sixty years from its celebration and a broader theology to inspire our work today Vatican II did not anticipate our contemporary challenges nor do its documents provide specific guidelines or step by step instructions for addressing them But that does not make the council irrelevant As a touchstone of the church's magisterial tradition the Second Vatican Council remains foundational for the life and mission of the Catholic Church today However like any monument of the tradition the council requires ongoing investigation critical analysis and constant reconsideration from a diversity of contemporary perspectives if it is going to contribute to the living tradition of the church Through historical and theological lenses the contributors aim to rediscover forgotten voices and overlooked moments of Vatican II that may have something even more important to say today Each chapter promises to surprise enlighten inspire and teach in fresh and unexpected ways The contributors offer readers striking insights on the council's teaching related to the sexual abuse crisis antiracism politics the Synod on Synodality and much more By reexamining the teaching of Vatican II from the perspective of our present ecclesial crisis readers will have a better understanding of how its legacy and limits affect the ongoing reform of the church in a much changed theological ecclesial and social landscape Contributors Matteo Caponi Catherine E Clifford Kristin M Colberg Agn s Desmazi res Massimo Faggioli Theresa Gardner Edward P Hahnenberg Timothy Hanchin Tuan A Hoang Mary Kate Holman Jaisy A Joseph Florian Klug William Kuncken Josephine Laffin Martin Madar Evgeniia Muzychenko William I Orbih Bernard G Prusak Daniel A Rober

Conflict and the black servant in Oyono's "Houseboy" and Gordimer's "July's People" Wazha Lopang,2015-12-01 Scientific Essay from the year 2015 in the subject Literature Africa University of Botswana language English abstract This study intends to compare the portrayal of conflict in Ferdinand Oyono s Houseboy and Nadine Gordimer s July s People Specifically it looks at how the black servant is forced to balance the loyalty he has for the white employer and for his African roots The analysis of Houseboy will focus on how conflict is represented between whites and blacks how it can satirically have a positive influence on others and lastly how conflict among the blacks can be very destructive Houseboy shows how conflict can be prompted by stereotypes how it can be a shield from other pressing concerns and even how conflict itself can provide an outlet for humour The analysis of July s People will on the other hand focus on how people can live together under pretences that they are at peace with one another when in actual fact they are not how the black servant can be in conflict with people of other races or their traditions as well as how that servant can be in conflict with fate or destiny In conclusion it will be shown how Houseboy is more explicit in portraying conflict than July

s People due to the events that happened in the two texts An argument can be made therefore if conflict experienced by black servants during the colonial period was more in the open as opposed to that of apartheid South Africa
