The Coma Alex Garland:

The Coma Alex Garland, 2005-07-05 When Carl awakens from a coma after being attacked on a subway train life around him feels unfamiliar even strange He arrives at his best friend s house without remembering how he got there he seems to be having an affair with his secretary which is pleasant but surprising He starts to notice distortions in his experience strange leaps in his perception of time Is he truly reacting with the outside world he wonders or might he be terribly mistaken So begins a dark psychological drama that raises questions about the the human psyche dream versus reality and the boundaries of consciousness As Carl grapples with his predicament Alex Garland author of The Beach and the screenplay for 28 Days Later plays with conventions and questions our assumptions about the way we exist in the world even as it draws us into the unsettling and haunting book about a lost suitcase and a forgotten identity The New Puritan Generation Paul March-Russell, David Owen, Sonia Villegas-López, Bianca Leggett, Sara Martín, Miriam Borham-Puyal, Laura Monrós-Gaspar, David James, 2013-10-15 In the year 2000 two young editors Nicholas Blincoe and Matt Thorne published All Hail the New Puritans an anthology of short stories which created an impact in the somewhat faded literary scene of Britain at the turn of the millennium The stories themselves written by 15 young English writers Scarlett Thomas Alex Garland Ben Richards Nicholas Blincoe Candida Clark Daren King Geoff Dyer Matt Thorne Anna Davis Bo Fowler Matthew Branton Simon Lewis Tony White Toby Litt and Rebecca Ray together with the editors manifesto offered a new and stimulating approach to fiction although the whole project had an outrageous reception by the literary establishment For the first time a collection of essays addresses the importance of the New Puritan movement and provides guidelines to understand this generation of writers The Contemporary British Novel Philip Tew, 2007-06-26 Second edition of this guide for students studying contemporary British writing written by one of the key academics in the field of modern fiction studies The Language and Imagery of Coma and Brain Injury Matthew Colbeck, 2021-04-22 What occurs within coma What does the coma patient experience How does the patient perceive the world outside of coma if at all The simple answer to these questions is that we don t know Yet the sheer volume of literary and media texts would have us believe that we do Examining representations of coma and brain injury across a variety of texts this book investigates common tropes and linguistic devices used to portray the medical condition of coma giving rise to universal mythologies and misconceptions in the public domain Matthew Colbeck looks at how these texts represent or fail to represent long term brain injury drawing on narratives of coma survivors that have been produced and curated through writing groups he has run over the last 10 years Discussing a diverse range of cultural works including novels by Irvine Welsh Stephen King Tom McCarthy and Douglas Coupland as well as film and media texts such as The Sopranos Kill Bill Coma and The Walking Dead Colbeck provides an explanation for our fascination with coma With a proliferation of misleading stories of survival in the media and in literature this book explores the potential impact these have upon our own understanding of coma and its victims The Literary Review ,2004 Pre and
