

Case Problem 2

Metropolitan Research, Inc.

Metropolitan Research, Inc., a consumer research organization, conducts surveys designed to measure public opinion on product characteristics and advertising. In one recent survey, Metropolitan asked its consumers whether they are purchasers of various items produced by or under the brand name of General. Of particular interest is a survey of one of the manufacturers in which the following general questions about their advertising practices were asked. The survey results are summarized below. Metropolitan used a sample of 1,000 consumers when conducting a telephone survey of the following questions. The following two data tables would be used to determine the effects of the advertising practices.
