The Smoke and Mirrors Game of Global CSR Reporting Anil Hira, 2023-05-16. This book examines corporate social responsibility reporting systems. Corporate social responsibility or CSR is the idea that corporations should act ethically with a sense of obligation to society beyond financial return. We focus on the main ways that corporations report CSR at the global level. We find that the main reporting systems, whether administered through the UN through The Global Compact or through the various financial reporting systems such as Bloomberg, are fundamentally flawed. In fact, it would be very hard for an ethical investor or consumer to find adequate and accurate information. The book closes with suggestions on how to reform the CSR information system so that corporations can be held accountable and incentivized to do the right thing.

Using theory, empirical research, and case studies, this book explores the changing nature of business in Africa and how businesses can actively contribute to the development of Africa. It uses and critically analyses the concept of Africapitalism, a management philosophy and movement which seeks to blend the best of African values and Western management theories as a basis for sustainable development in Africa, to understand the subtle factors that underpin business decisions in Africa. The collection of chapters in this book are organized around actors, issues, and reflections. They collectively present an account of Africapitalism, albeit from different perspectives and on different issues, and open up a new space for rethinking business and society relations in Africa from an Africapitalism perspective.
