Creating Literacy Instruction for All Children Thomas G. Gunning,2000

Creating Literacy Instruction for All Children is a comprehensive practical text that provides its readers with step-by-step guidance for teaching all major aspects of reading and writing Gunning's text helps students discover approaches and techniques that fit teachers' personal styles and situations It aims to present as fairly completely and clearly as possible the major methods and strategies shown to be successful in research and practice The text features sample lessons for virtually every major literacy skill strategy and offers numerous reinforcement suggestions and generous listings of materials With two updated chapters on word analysis skills strategies the text continues to give teachers the information and techniques they need to implement a systematic and functional program of word analysis that is integrated with students' reading and writing The text also presents the theory behind the methods so students will be free to choose adapt and/or construct their own approaches as they create literacy instruction This edition endorses the viewpoint that a well-prepared classroom teacher is capable of effectively instructing most struggling readers and writers

English Duluth Public Schools (Duluth,

Minn.),1919 Reading Diagnosis for Teachers Rebecca Barr,2007 Built on a case study approach to reading diagnosis this classroom based resource features strong research a theoretical foundation and a developmental constructivist perspective of literacy In this fourth edition the authors offer an Instructional Approach that consistently helps the reflective practitioner connect diagnosis with instructional planning It provides many more cases from actual students and classrooms than other diagnosis books as well as a strong research and theoretical grounding for practice The authors introduce readers to early literacy screening running records informal reading inventories miscue analysis assessment issues related to national and state initiatives and much more How Is My First Grader Doing in School? Jennifer Richard Jacobson,1999-10 Designed for parents who want to help their children succeed in school this educator approved program fosters a collaboration between parent and teacher by providing home based activities that support a child s classroom education Features a pull out assessment test Line illustrations booklet Let's Begin Reading Right Marjorie Vannoy Fields,Lois A. Groth,Katherine Spangler,2004 Written from a constructivist viewpoint this popular book for future teachers of children from preschool through the primary grades focuses on how young children construct literacy and how teachers can support and guide that activity through developmentally appropriate teaching practices Advocates giving children a choice of the reading material from which they will learn and caution against grouping children solely by literacy ability Examines current research into emergent and holistic literacy and tie its findings to instructional practices that teach such skills as phonemic awareness phonics and spelling within the context of meaningful reading and writing tasks Increased coverage of assessment emphasizes performance based alternatives to standardized testing during early childhood and examines current recommendations in terms of developmentally appropriate practice Provides a strong explanation of shared and interactive writing Discusses literacy development in infants and toddlers For future or current teachers interested in literacy or reading methods in early childhood
