Gribbin, 2016-09-06 In 1915 Albert Einstein presented his masterwork to the Prussian Academy of Sciences a theory of gravity matter space and time the General Theory of Relativity Einstein himself said it was the most valuable theory of my life and of incomparable beauty It describes the evolution of the universe black holes the behavior of orbiting neutron stars and why clocks run slower on the surface of the earth than in space It even suggests the possibility of time travel And yet when we think of Einstein's breakthrough year we think instead of 1905 the year of Einstein's Special Theory of Relativity and his equation $E=mc^2$ as his annus mirabilis even though the Special Theory has a narrower focus Today the General Theory is overshadowed by these achievements regarded as too difficult for ordinary mortals to comprehend In Einstein's Masterwork John Gribbin puts Einstein's astonishing breakthrough in the context of his life and work and makes it clear why his greatest year was indeed 1915 and his General Theory his true masterpiece Democratizing Luxury Annika A. Culver, 2023-12-31 Democratizing Luxury explores the interplay between advertising and consumption in modern Japan by investigating how Japanese companies at key historical moments assigned value or luxury to mass produced products as an important business model Japanese name brand luxury evolved alongside a consumer society emerging in the late nineteenth century with iconic companies whose names became associated with quality and style At the same time Western ideas of modernity merged with earlier artisanal ideals to create Japanese connotations of luxury for readily accessible products Businesses manufactured items at all price points to increase consumer attainability while starkly curtailing production for limited editions to augment desirability Between the late nineteenth and twenty first centuries control over family disposable income transformed Japanese middle class women into an important market Growth of purchasing power among women corresponded with Japanese goods diffusing throughout the empire and globally after the Asia Pacific war 1931 1945 This book offers case studies that examine affordable luxury consumer items often advertised to women including drinks beauty products fashion and timepieces Japanese companies have capitalized on affordable luxury since a flourishing domestic mercantile economy began in the Tokugawa period 1603 1868 showcasing brand name shops renowned artisans and mass produced woodblock prints by famous artists In the late nineteenth century personalized service expanded within department stores like Mitsukoshi Shiseid cosmetic counters and designer boutiques Shiseid now globally markets invented traditions of omotenashi Japanese values of hospitality expressed in purchasing and consuming its products In postwar times when a thriving democracy and middle class were tied to greater disposable income and consumerism companies rebuilt a growing consumer base among cautious shoppers democratizing luxury at reasonable prices and maintaining business patterns of accessibility high quality and exemplary service Nationalism amid economic success soon blended with myths of unique Japanese identity in a mass consumer society suffused by commodity fetishism with widely available brand names As the first comprehensive history of iconic Japanese name brands and their unique connotations of luxury and accessibility in modern Japan and elsewhere Democratizing Luxury explores company histories and reveals strategies that lead customers to consume these alluring commodities

The national question Ramón Pineda Gómez, 2023-11-29 Before the rise of republics relations between communities were religious and military power based on the rights of the gods and spiritual warfare The Sublime Powers Granted to the Elect of the Deities With the appearance of the Republics and the Free Man International Relations as we know them today began the interaction between the National States with equal culture or legal society independence and sovereignty The right to war disappears no Republic establishes the law of war to destroy another nation The world of nations originated and consolidated in the American continent during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries For the other continents the process began in Europe s First World War and extended to Asia and Africa during the Second World War and the Cold War But even today religious empires defend themselves by creating wars within republics and supported by monarchies and spiritual states Freedom of worship is established in the Republics to end servitude no more servants of religion who persecute condemn and subjugate peoples in the name of the gods Faith ceases to be an obligation and becomes an option In the Republic you can be an atheist during work hours a worshipper of Venus at lunch a priest of Bacchus and Morpheus at night and a worshipper of Hu tzil p chtli during a sporting event and no civil authority can judge you for changing religion or prioritizing science over mythologies In contrast to natural rights republics establish citizen and social rights with Constitutions Nature does not grant any rights The creation of the Free Man in the American continent gave good results that inspired European intelligence to create great cosmogonies such as Marxism and liberalism But religious empires remain a factor of control and domination they have no legal personality do not pay taxes have their own rules and demand tribute from their faithful
